CROWD IN ELEVATED CAR TRIED TO LYNCH NEGRO WHO STRUCK DOWN GIRL

New York, April 10.—Infuriated by a brutal assault by a negro tonight on Miss Isabel Oliver, a resident of Alabama, passengers on a Ninth avenue elevated train, made a desperate attempt to lynch the negro, who was only rescued when a policeman fought his way into the car and held the crowd at bay with his revolver. Miss Oliver was holding to a strap in the center of the car when the negro lurched against her and, on requesting him to be more careful, struck her in the face, splitting her nose, blackening both her eyes and knocking her down. Instantly fully fifty men rushed on the negro, raining blows on him and shouting "Lynch him." The negro managed to defend himself until at station was reached, when a policeman boarded the car, and, after a hard fight, dragged his prisoner out. The negro was taken to the station house followed by a mob of several hundred men who were only held back by the pistols of the policemen. In the station house Miss Oliver sprang at the negro with a hat pin, but was held and disarmed by a policeman. The prisoner was a West Indian negro, who gave his name as Albert Trott.

BAILEY GIVES VIEWS ON RATES QUESTION

Texas Senator Given Marked Attention During Delivery of His Speech.

SAYS CONGRESS CAN CONTROL COURTS OF ITS CREATION

Nearly All Senators Were in Their Seats and Many Members Crowded in From the House to Listen to the Address.

Washington, April 10.—For more than four hours today, Mr. Bailey held the undivided attention of the senate, with a speech in reply to Mr. Spooner, and Mr. Knox, and just before its conclusion, there was a significant suggestion from Mr. Hale, indicating the possibility of an understanding and an early vote on the railroad rate bill.

The day was one of the most notable in the recent history of the senate. Very few senators were absent, and every seat in the galleries was held with marked tenacity. Many members of the house crowded into the senate chamber, some of them standing for hours. Several senators and many spectators went without luncheon rather than miss any part of Mr. Bailey's speech, and at its conclusion, the speaker was congratulated by many.

There were comparatively few interruptions and there was no effort at applause until the close of the discussion, when there was a spontaneous burst of handclapping in the galleries, which the vice-president was unable for a time to check.

The close attention given throughout the four hours was all the more marked in view of the legal character of the argument. Mr. Bailey set out to establish the soundness of his contention that congress has power to deny to the inferior United States courts the right to suspend the order of the interstate commerce committee, pending the final decision of cases arising under the proposed law. This he undertook to do by citing innumerable decisions of the courts, and quoting many other authorities. The citations were interspersed with his comment. Mr. Hale announced his willingness to accept the anti-suspension amendment, and expressed confidence that if Mr. Bailey, would on the other hand, agree to a broad court review, there would be comparatively little difficulty in reaching an agreement on the bill.

In response Mr. Bailey said that he did not believe that review by the courts could be denied under the constitution.

Debate on Mail Subsidies.

For seven hours today, the house had under consideration, the postoffice appropriation bill, but only in a few instances were the provisions considered. During the debate on the special appropriation for railway mail pay, bitter words were exchanged between representatives from North Carolina, Arkansas and Kentucky, but all were within the rules of the house. A humorous speech was made by J. Adam Bede, (Minnesota), and Charles A. Towne, (New York), spoke in behalf of the Jamestown exposition. Both Mr. Bede and Mr. Towne represented the Duluth district in other congresses. They were warmly congratulated on their speeches.

ARGUMENT ENDS IN FAMOUS CASE

Judge Speer Will Charge Greene-Gaynor Jury Today.

After Months of Daily Sessions in Which Evidence Was Introduced for and Against Defendants, the Case Now Nears Its Finish.

Savannah, Ga., April 10.—P. W. Meldrim, leading counsel for the defense, spoke on the convening of the federal court for the Greene and Gaynor trial today. The court room was crowded.

Tonight the arguments were brought to a close, Samuel B. Adams concluding for the government. He spoke for three hours, and so great was the interest in the trial that the large court room was thronged. Every available inch of standing room was taken, and in the corridors and official's rooms adjoining crowds stood eager to hear what little of Judge Adam's speech might float in to them. The crowd bore the discomforts of standing throughout the session.

Upon the conclusion of Judge Adam's argument to the jury, Judge Speer announced that he would begin the delivery of his charge tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. So exhaustive is the charge he has prepared that it covers 250 typewritten pages. Its delivery will take at least the entire morning session.

FIRST CAR OF STRAWBERRIES.

South Alabama Will Produce Large Crop This Season

Montgomery, Ala., April 10.—The first car load of strawberries shipped this season from the berry region of southern Alabama passed through Montgomery today.

The car was a consignment to dealers at Pittsburg, Pa., and was shipped from Castleberry, the center of the strawberry district of Alabama.

The frosts of March did not do the damage to the strawberry crop that was at first reported. Only the blooms were killed, and the embyro blossoms, under the influence of the bright spring sunshine and the warm April showers soon put in an appearance, with the result that in twenty-eight days from the date of what seemed a total annihilation of the crop, car load lots of the berries are being shipped to the northern markets. More than 300 cars will be shipped.

THE SOUTHERN LEAGUE SEASON BEGINS TODAY

WITH SHOES SCORCHING ATLANTA MINISTER FLED BEFORE VESUVIUS' LAVA

Rev. Lucian L. Knight was Standing Near the Crater When Present Disastrous Eruption Began. All Naples in Danger.

THE molten lava from Mount Vesuvius which is now causing death and destruction around the city of Naples, was less than a month ago scorching the feet of Rev. Lucien L. Knight, now in Atlanta, who was fleeing down the side of the crater as the river of fire rolled behind him. The heat about him was so intense that he could scarcely breathe.

Rev. Mr. Knight, whose home was for many years in Atlanta and who left several lyears ago to follow his calling as a minister of the gospel, has returned to the city to again make this place his home. He is at 304 North Boulevard and it was there that a reporter of The Constitution saw and talked with him yesterday regarding his visit to the crater of Mount Vesuvius.

When Mr. Knight took the perilous trip the great mountain with its funnel that delved into the bowels of the earth and which had dealt death to many thousands of people, had already begun to send out its deadly lava and ashes, but it was not thought there was any immediate danger.

Mr. Knight had the opportunity of seeing a fresh fissure open in the side of the crater. The lava was already issuing from many such fissures, while the mouth of the old crater seemed to be cold and quiet.

Experience Was Thrilling.

The experience of Mr. Knight was so thrilling that he is not surpised to hear that Naples has suffered from the eruption of Mount Vesuvius. He says that when he was there less than a month ago the people had begun to talk about the disturbance at the top of the crater and many were speaking of moving away to a place of safety.

"I never wish to have but one such experience in a lifetime," said Mr. Knight yesterday when talking with the reporter of The Constitution. "We did not think we were doing a foolhardy act in climbing to the top of the crater, for we had been assured that there was no immediate danger, but we found that the molten lava was rolling down the sides of the mountain like a river of fire. We were a long time going up, but it took us but a few minutes to come down. The stuff under our feet burned our shoes and when we reached Naples we had to buy new footgear.

Climbed to Top of Crater.

"Naples is about 5 or 6 miles from the foot of Mount Vesuvius. It was on the 14th of last month that I and about twenty other tourists decided to make the trip to the top of the crater. We intended going the day before, but were told that there might be some danger and there would be no excursion.

"On March 14 our party started and the cars stopped at the foot of the crater instead of going to the top, as it generally does. The lava had covered up the tracks and the cars could not go farther. Dr. Peck, of Cleveland, Ohio, who was in our party, announced that he was going to climb to the top of the crater and we went with him. We had four guides and it took us a long time to climb up.

"All about us we could see a river of fire rolling slowly down the mountainside. The air was so hot that it was stifling. We were soon above the clouds and the mist settled down upon us like a rain. This made the heat all the more unendurable.

"As we stood near the crater, which was quiet and apparently cold, we suddenly saw a stream of lava spring through a fissure which up to that moment was cold. The lava had been pouring from hundreds of other fissures. The hot lava began to come down so thick and fast that we beat a retreat, and none, I think, too soon. We were no more than ten minutes getting down the crater side. Behind us rolled a great river of fire. Our shoes scorching our feet, and when we reached Naples we had to buy new shoes.

People Were in Fear.

"I left Naples on March 19 and at that time Mount Vesuvius was still belching flames and lava.

"Naples is about 5 miles from the crater. Herculaneum was at the foot of the crater and was destroyed by the molten laval; Pompeii was about 9 miles from the foot of the crater and was destroyed by the hot ashes and dust.

"If Naples is in any danger, I think it will be from the ashes more than from the lava. The latter rolls very slowly, and it would take a great deal of it and require some time for it to reach the city.

"On the other hand, a shower of the hot ashes could cover the city and cause loss of life before the people could flee from danger.

WOMEN'S UNION IS IN SESSION

Presbyterian Church Workers Are Assembled at Americus.

Americus, Ga., April 10.—(Special.)—The Women's Presbyterian Union, representing churches of that denomination throughout southwestern Georgia, assembled in Americus tonight, twenty-five cities being represented. Rev. J. L. Irwin, pastor of the Americus church, welcomed the visitors at tonight's session, the business meeting being tomorrow. The convention continues through Thursday.

HAAS ARRESTED FOR COTTON LEAK

Was Released on $1,300 Bail.

New York, April 10.—That the federal authorities were not satisfied with the outcome of the investigation instituted against Moses Haas and Frederick A. Peckham last year for having, it is alleged, conspired with Edward S. Holmes, Jr., of the bureau of statistics, to secure advance information concerning the government's official cotton crop report, and which resulted in the discharge of Haas and Peckham was shown by the arrest late today of Moses Haas.

Haas was held by Judge Adams in $1,300 bail, which he furnished, and was released pending an examination on a date to be determined later.

Shortly after the federal grand jury in Washington indicted Haas and Peckham, Haas was arrested in New York and Peckham in Saratoga.

Former Assistant United States District Attorneys Marx and Miller, representing Haas and Peckham in New York made the novel plea before United States Commissioner Ridgeway that their clients could not be held for Holmes' official misconduct in New York, that being a crime peculiar to the District of Columbia. On this the two men were discharged.

Train Kills Tax Assessor.

Pensacola, Fla., April 10.—J. B. Lockey, tax assessor of Jackson county, Fla., was killed last night at Sneads, on the Louisville and Nashville railroad. Mr. Lockey attempted to cross the tracks ahead of the train, and although he was seen by the engineer and the emergency brakes applied, was run down and badly mangled before the train could be brought to a stop. Death was instantaneous.

HUNDREDS CRUSHED BENEATH BUILDINGS

FLOW OF LAVA STRONGER AND DETONATIONS LOUDER

All Communication With Villages in Danger Has Been Cut Off and Railways Are Blocked by Fall of Cinders and Stones.

NAPLES, April 11—(5:30 a. m.)—A great eruption of sand is observed on the east side of the main crater this morning. This is worse than ashes as it is heavier. The ejection of ashes seems to have diminished.

Frequent shocks of earthquake are being felt, especially in th direction of Ottajano, Sorma and Nola. Fortunately the great amount of ashes on the ground seems to have counteracted the telluric action of the shocks.

Another part of the main cone of the volcano has fallen in, causing a great discharge of red hot stones, flame and smoke.

Reports from Sicily state that ashes from Mount Vesuvius are noticeable there.

Rome, April 10—A despatch from Naples to The Tribuna reports that 500 persons have perished in the disaster between Ottajano and San Giuseppe.

Naples, April 10.—When morning broke today the outlook was promising for an amelioration of the conditions consequent upon the activity of Mount Vesuvius. The hopefulness of the populace, however, was short-lived and the Neapolitans were plunged into a condition bordering on frenzy by the collapse of Mont Oliveto market, which covered a plot of ground 600 feet square, the structure falling upon two hundred or more persons, many of whom were crushed and mangled beyond recognition.

The scenes in the vicinity of the ruins were agonizing, relatives of the victims clamoring to be allowed to go to their dead or dying. Only the firm intervention of the police and carbineers made it possible to keep back the crowd from overwhelming those who were engaged in the work of rescue.

Villages Are Doomed.

While early in the day the volcanic activity of Mount Vesuvius appeared to have diminished, as night approached the prospect of immediate relief faded, and the fate of the villages and town grouped around the volcano seemed hopeless.

Instead of decreasing, the fall of sand and ashes emitted from the crater increased. Even with the sun shining high in the heavens, the light was a dim yellow, in the midst of which the few people who remained in the stricken towns, their clothing, hair and beards covered with ashes, moved about in the awful stillness of desolation like gray ghosts.

The case of Torre del Greco is typical. For thirty hours the place has been practically deserted, but amid the ruins and a semi-darkness illuminated from time to time by vivid flashes of lightning,

JURY TO PROBE THE WASHINGTON

Investigation Will Be Begun Today.

It Is Understood That the Result May Be the Preferring of Charges Against Some of the Company's Old Officers.

New York, April 10.—The Evening Post today published the following:

"The grand jury will begin tomorrow an investigation into the affairs of the Washington Life Insurance Company, which some time ago had a good deal of internal dissension, which led to its reorganization.

"The district attorney's office has been engaged for some time past in going over the old books and files of the company, the work having been entrusted to Assistant District Attorneys Nott and Kresel, woh are now ready to submit the evidence to the grond jury.

"It is understood that the result may be the preferring of charges against some of the old officers of the company."

OLD MAN, DYING, PLUCKS AT SLEEVE OF PASSERBY

LYING on what he believed to be his deathbed, alone, untended by friends and without medical attention an old shoemaker named W. C. Williams, who lives in a miserable shack little larger than a telephone booth, at 532 Marietta street, growing desperate last night, crawled to the door of his dwelling and feebly stretching forth his hand, plucked at the sleeve of a man who was passing down the street. The man was F. E. A. Curtis, and stopped to help the old man who seemed to be in a helpless condition.

The old man told him that he was a shoemaker by trade, but that for the last two weeks he had been in a most wretched state and was almost starving to death. He said that he had been alone in his sickness and was in mortal terror of dying all by himself, while hundreds of people hurried along the street before his door.

His words were more than borne out by his appearance. Promising to return as quickly as possible, Curtis hurried to the police station, where he reported the case to Sergeant Mitchell. The Grady hospital was called by telephone and the condition of the old man was explained just as the station sergeant had it from the lips of Curtis. Word came back from the hospital, however, that the man could not be taken in, as no chronic case, it was explained, could be accepted.

Believing that it meant death to the old shoemaker if he spent the night without attention in his little shop, Curtis made an effort to communicate with Dr. Broughton, hoping that the man could be taken to the Tabernacle infirmary. When Dr. Broughton learned of the condition of Williams he at once replied that if there was room at the infirmary he would be received. It was found that there was only one unoccupied bed there, and in half an hour the old shoemaker was lying between its snowy sheets, while nurses and physicians tried to make him as comfortable as possible. The doctor examined his patient and found that he was suffering with heart disease. At a late hour last night he was still alive, but in a critical condition.

NO ARBITRATION FOR MINE OWNERS

Proposition of the Miners Turned Down.

New York, April 10.—A counter proposition was made by the anthracite coal operators at their meeting today with the representatives of the United Mine Worker's of America. This proposition rejects the arbitration plan offered by John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Worker's, and suggests the following instead:

The anthracite coal commission of 1903 should be requested to reconvene, and consider whether any circumstances have arisen since April 1, 1903, which would justify a modification of its award of that date in respect only to the following subjects:

1. Wages.
2. Constitution of board of conciliation.

Any new award of the commission shall be binding for a period of three years.

The joint conference adjourned after having been in session about half an hour, to meet on Thursday at 1:30 p. m.

SENATOR BLEASE WAS ACQUITTED

Columbia, S. C., April 10.—A special from Saluda says: State Senator Eugene S. Blease, charged with the murder of his brother in law, Joe Ben Coleman, in October last, was acquitted tonight after a trial lasting over one day.

No more dramatic scene has ever been witnessed in the Saluda court house than when Blease told in tears and sobs of his friendship and love for Joe Ben Coleman, their associations for many years, his exertions to secure Coleman a position and then of the ruin of his home and the appalling weight of shame his wife's infidelity brought him.

At the conclusion of this dramatic scene the situation was rendered even more dramatic when the defendant swooned as he was leaving the stand and became limp as death. He had to be carried to the injury room, where he remained during the entire time of the arguments, attended by a physician.

The arguments were concluded by 8 o'clock, at which time Judge Prince delivered his charge, the jury returning a verdict of not guilty at 9:30 o'clock tonight.

Blease and Coleman married sisters, and it was the alleged intimacy between Coleman and Blease's wife which led up to the tragedy in October last.

EVEN BREAK SAYS DURRETT.

Montgomery Leader Stated Last Night That He Would Be Satisfied with Two Games.

Sixteen strong, headed by Manager Ike Durrett, the Montgomery baseball team reached Atlanta last night at 11:40 o'clock to play four games in this city.

"My men have been handicapped by the bad weather," said Durrett when asked as to his prospects, "and my pitchers are not in the best of shape. I will be well satisfied with two games out of the four played.

"My line-up is still a little uncertain. Houtz should arrive in Atlanta today to join us. If he does he will play in right field. If not, Thornton will play that position.

"Either Malarky or McCrane will pitch. I will play in left field and intend to stay there all the season. John McMakan is at present coaching Clemson and will not join us until May 1.

"Mullaney will play first, Schwartz second and Hilley, secured from the New York state league, where he has played five years, will be at short. Perry, from the Iowa State League, works at third base. Apperious, the center fielder, is the old Georgetown player.

"I have secured Catcher Haussen from the St. Louis Nationals and Outfielder Houtz from the same club, both men having been secured for a try out this year by the Nationals.

"In pitchers I have McCrane, last year with the outlaw league; Red Ehret, whom every fan knows; Hale, with us last year; Malarky, bought from Columbus, and May, a collegian. Busch is still with us, and McAleese is the other catcher."

DOWIE ARRIVES IN WINDY CITY

But will Not Go to Zion Just Now.

Declares That He Will Fight for His Authority by Legal Methods. Great Crowd Was at Station to Greet Elijah.

Chicago, April 10.—John Alexander Dowie will not advance on the "hosts of Zion" as suddenly as he expected. Tonight after a long consultation with his legal adviser, Dowie said that it might be several days before he sees fit to enter the city which he founded.

"The first apostle" arrived in Chicago this morning. An immense crowd was at the station to greet him. He was in the best of spirits and health and before leaving the car cracked several jokes with a number of newspaper correspondents. Escorted by loyal followers he made his way to the end of the train. He was greeted with an assortment of welcomes, ranging from the reverent "peace be with thee" of the Zionists, to the more jocular "good boy, Dowie," of the curious members of the throng. The crush was so great that the police protection proved inadequate and members of the Zion guards had to fight vigorously to get their leader to his carriage.

Attempt to Serve Subpoena.

Just before he reached the vehicle a man sprang past the bodyguard and waved a document in Dowie's face. Before a further move could be made the Zion guards threw him bodily over a nearby railing. It was afterwards learned that the man was a deputy sheriff who was endeavoring to serve Dowie with a summons in a civil suit in which a medical expert claimed that fees to the extent of $500 had been due him for several years. The incident disturbed Dowie very little, and he was driven to the Auditorium annex, where apartments had been secured for his party.

After a short rest Dowie summoned his legal advisers and then ensued a conference which lasted the greater part of the evening. Just what the proceedings will be to reinstate "the first apostle" in Zion City was not stated, but Dowie said that there would be no compromise with Voliva and that Dr. John Alexander Dowie must be the leader of Zion or nothing at all.

Blocking Mexican Scheme.

This same determination was shown at Zion City, where the business committee of twelve appointed by Voliva, decided to send to all branches of the church the following order:

"Officers, members and friends of the Christian Catholic Apostolic church are directed not to send any more money for Mexican land warrants."

W. H. Piper, one of the overseers, explained:

"The step was taken because of a desire to completely block Dowie's Mexican scheme and at the same time to remove all chances for his access to funds. The Mexican contributions are the last resort, control of them being in the hands of Deacons John A. Lewis and Fielding H. Wilhite, who are Dowie's friends."

Dr. Dowie, when questioned regarding the secret chamber which was discovered by Overseer Voliva in the basement of his residence at Zion City yesterday, said:

"Yes, I am aware that such a room exists in the basement of Shiloh house, but I can readily explain to you why it was put there. A former mayor of Zion City, being an extremely cautious man, believed that it was well to take precautions against cyclones and mob vengeance. He built this chamber with my full approval, but I assure you that I have never entered the room in my life. It was also thought at the time that the room might prove an appropriate resting place for the first apostle."

BETWEEN
The Devil and the Deep Sea.

When coffee gets a person well within its grip and the drug habit is fixed then comes twisting and turning to get free.

With many people, if the coffee is left off at breakfast a headache sets in, and if coffee is taken the old stomach and nervous disorders are simply added to and made more fixed and harder to escape from. Still there is a very easy way to freedom and health.

A woman in Mo. says:

"I never thought of attributing my ailments to coffee till, several months ago, I saw a Postum Food Coffee advertisement which stated that the old kind of coffee was frequently injurious to people, so I thought I would try Postum, anyway, for I was in a most wretched condition, a nervous wreck with weak heart which fluttered and threatened to stop.

"The first time I made Postum Coffee, I boiled it well and was delighted with the flavor. My husband, who did not know that it was not the old kind of coffee, relished it very much, saying, 'What good coffee that is!' But after breakfast I was taken with a headache and drowsiness caused by the lack of the customary drug. I was resolute, however, and drank it for dinner and supper. The next day the headache was not so bad and the third day it was gone. Day by day I felt better and better, and soon noticed that I did not tire so easily as I used to. In two weeks my friends began to compliment me on my improved condition. I rapidly gained in flesh and strength, and in 3 months was a new being with strong, steady nerves and easy, comfortable, healthy heart action. I feel like thanking you so much for Postum Food Coffee." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Headache, when coffee is left off, is rare, but is a sure, infallible sign of a poisoned, drugged nervous system, calling more and more for the drug that caused the trouble. To yield to the fierce demand of the drug habit is most humiliating and sinks the victim deeper, with certainty of fixed organic disease if persisted in. It is easy to change from coffee, if Postum Food Coffee is used in its place, for Postum well made, that is, boiled long enough, has the deep seal brown of Mocha and the soft, smooth (not strong) flavor much like old Gov't Java, the taste being distinct, however, and belonging only to genuine Postum. Leaving off the coffee that breaks down the nerve centers and taking a food drink that supplies the needed elements to rebuild them makes rapid change for the a few of the inhabitants go about hungry and with throats parched with smoke and dust, seemingly unable to tear themselves away from the ruins of what so recently were their homes.

Communication by rail or tramway with Torre del Greco and Torre Annunziata is impossible, owing to the cinder, sand and ash deposits. Railway travel to and from Naples is much hampered by the same conditions, and a collision today resulted in the injury of about twelve persons. Telegraphic communication with the towns furthest in the danger zone also is interrupted.

Lava Streams Increase.

The flow of lava from the volcano, which had almost ceased during the night, recommenced early today, and the fall of volcanic matter in the Vesuvian communities has been enormous. It is feared that the weight of ashes on roofs will cause the collapse of many more buildings both here and in the towns and villages nearer the volcano.

Director Matteucci, who continues at his post in the observatory, telegraphed tonight that the volcano was generally calm last night with occasional sharp explosions, these becoming more violent towards morning. Director Matteucci says his seismic instruments indicate great subterranean agitation.

King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Helena have forwarded to Premier Sonnino, who is here, $20,000 to be applied towards the relief of the sufferers by the volcano.

The prefect has removed the mayor of San Guisseppe from office because, in the face of danger, he left his village without informing his superiors.

Cardinal Prisco, archbishop of Naples, who today visited the people, wounded by the fall of the wall of the Mont Oliveto market, brought to these unfortunates the benediction of the pope.

An Angel of Mercy.

The duchess of Aosta was a veritable angel of mercy to the sufferers by the market house disaster. She spent the entire day at the hospital, comforting the bereaved and assisting the injured. As the duchess bent over a cot to give a cooling drink to a child who was bruised and battered from head to foot, she felt a kiss imprinted on her hand. Looking down, the duchess' eyes met those of a woman kneeling at her feet, who said: "Your excellency, she," point to the suffering child, "is all I have. I am a widow. May God reward you."

The troops on duty in the volcanic zone are utilizing the railway carriages at different localities as camp hospitals. The Red Cross Society has established a hospital in the vicinity of San Giuseppe.

The number of dead taken from the church at San Giuseppe, which collapsed yesterday while a congregation of about two hundred persons were attending mass, is twenty-six. There were seventy-nine severely injured.

CENTRAL BUYS STILLMORE LINE

Indications Are Road Will be Operated Separately.

Savannah, Ga., April 10.—The Stillmore Air Line has been purchased by Colonel A. R. Lawton, vice president of the Central of Georgia Railway Company.

H. P. Smart has become president of the company which indicates that the road will be operated as a separate corporation.

Several months ago it was rumored that the Central would buy the Stillmore Air Line, but it was denied at this time by the authorities of the Central and by George M. Brinson, the president, and only stockholder. It is said that the purchase price was within the neighborhood of $500,000.

The Stillmore Air Line is 54 miles long running from Collins, on the Seaboard, to Wadley, on the Central.

AT AN EARLY HOUR LAST NIGHT the place of the Coca Nola Company was invaded by a burglar, who went through the money drawer, throwing all the papers out which he found lying in it. Practically all the cash had been taken from the drawer before the place was closed for the night. It is thought that the burglar was a boy, as the place through which the entry was made was far too small to admit anyone but a diminutive urchin. Nothing besides the money drawer was disturbed.

SIX THEATERS FOR ATLANTA

DeGive and Jake Wells Will Put Up Building.

Joel Hurt Declares Off the Deal to Build for Them and Says He Will Build for Other Theatrical Folk.

If present plans mature Atlanta will soon have six theaters. It was announced yesterday by Joel Hurt that he would not build his proposed theater on Edgewood avenue for Messrs. L. DeGive and Jake Wells, but that he intends to erect the structure and that he is dealing with other theatrical folk.

As a counter to this proposition, it was stated yesterday by the Messrs. DeGive and by Hugh L. Cardoza, agent for Mr. Wells, that while the deal with Mr. Hurt is off, at the same time a new theater for Mr. Wells' productions will be erected before September. Options on suitable property are said already to have been secured.

That will give Atlanta the Grand, the Bijou, offering the bookings of Stair & Hamlin; the proposed new Wimbish house of Peachtree street, carrying the Shuberts' productions; the proposed vaudeville house on the site of the Peachtree auditorium, and the house for the Wells' productions.

Mr. DeGive, when seen last night, simply confirmed the announcement that the deal with Mr. Hurt had been declared off, and that Mr. Wells' interests would surely be in a new theater before Thanksgiving.

"I expect Mr. Wells and one of his associates here during this week," was the declaration of Hugh L. Cardoza, the general representative of the Wells' interests. "We are certainly going to have a new play house here for next season. It may not be ready for the opening, but shows will be on before merry Christmas. The inference that our Hurt 'declare off' was effected by the possibility of another theater here, for the better claaas of attraactions, was ill founded, because of the fact that our interests, popular price attractions, would not be effected."

RUSSELL WINS MANY VOTERS

Many Avowed Hoke Smith Followers Change to Russell.

Carrollton, Ga., April 10.—(Special.)—Judge Dick Russell spoke here today for two hours before a large and enthusiastic audience. He was introduced by Judge Bill Brown in a pleasant manner.

His audience was composed of practically the same men who heard Hoke Smith yesterday, and some of those who announced themselves yesterday as supporters of Smith expressed themselves today as having changed for Russell after hearing his speech. He held his large audience to the closest attention for the whole of the two hours, receiving much applause throughout his speech.

He demolished the Hoke Smith disfranchisement bill in a few words to the satisfaction of all hearers. He showed that under this policy 90 per cent of negroes would vote under the educational clause and that the only ones disfranchised would be the ante-bellum negro who we could most safely have to vote. He placed himself as neither for nor against railroads, and said that a governor who expressed and bore such prejudice as Hoke Smith held would be an unsafe man for the office, as he could not have at heart all the interests of the state.

He advocated the extension of the state road to deep water. He advocated the abolition of the railroad commission and control of same by the legislature. He made many votes by his speech.

HOKE SMITH AT CARROLLTON.

Candidate Was Forced To Find His Way Alone.

Carrollton, Ga., April 10.—(Special.)—Hon. Hoke Smith arrived here yesterday morning on the local freight train from Bremen. No one was at the train to meet him and he walked from the depot to the town, a distance of nearly one-fourth of a mile, through the mud, it having been raining here all the morning. He spoke at the court house at 12 o'clock for about an hour and a half, along his usual lines.

He developed nothing new nor different from his usual speeches. His audience was composed of some four hundred people, at least two hundred and fifty of whom were jurors and witnesses and court officers who were here in attendance on the superior court. At last fifty of his audience were school children from the public school here. This was a very favorable day for him to get an audience, as the rain was just enough to keep the farmers from work and not enough to keep them from coming to town had they wished to do so.

Mr. Smith left for Bremen in the afternoon, where he had an engagement to speak.

Professor Rice Enters Race.

Elberton, Ga., April 10.—(Special.)—Saturday Professor P. V. Rice, of Bowman, announced his candidacy for representative from this county, making four candidates for Elbert's two places. On the same day every candidate in the county met at Hulmeville at a meeting of the farmers' association, which proved to be the political day of this campaign. About 500 voters of the county were present. A big dinner was served on the ground.

FARMERS' DUTY AS TO COTTON

President Johnson of Georgia Division Issues Timely Warning.

In a statement given out today by President M. L. Johnson, of the Georgia division, Southern Cotton Association, he calls attention to the danger to the interests of the cotton producer growing out of the general apathy regarding the association which exists in several sections of the state, and shows that by preparation for emergencies only can they hope to attain ultimate success.

President Johnson said:

"While the association has many ardent friends all over Georgia, are there not some counties in the state where the people are lacking in proper interest in the association's work? Wherever this apathy exists it is due largely to the fact, no doubt, that the farmers think they are getting or are about to get a good price for their cotton.

"But is this true? Is 10 or 11 cents a good price when the spinners are today disposing of their product on the basis of a price of 14 cents, and more? That is just what they are doing and are thus getting the profit which the planter is entitled to and ought to have. Remember, too, that the high prices of everything that enters into the cost of production makes your cotton worth 14 cents and more, and we are making every effort to get for you that to which you are entitled.

"Let me call your attention to the fact that cotton is the only farm product of any proportions which is not protected by a tariff. The wheat and corn of the west have tariff protection. The speculator, called on to make actual delivery, cannot go into the foreign markets and get those products to make good his contracts. It is different with cotton; there being no tariff, there is no protection against this feature of the speculative market.

"In view of these facts, what, therefore, is the duty of the planter, and not only of the planter but the banker, the merchant and all others interested in the prosperity and success of the south? It is organization for their own protection, and the time to prepare for danger is right now. We must shake off this apathy everywhere and get together in the common cause; we must hold down the acreage, cutting out every unprofitable acre heretofore planted in cotton, and raise home products, if we hope to win the victory of the future. Therefore, I earnestly appeal to you to get together and cooperate in this movement for the sole purpose of establishing and maintaining profitable prices on your great crop.

STANDARD OIL BUYING TIMBER

Company Securing Vast Tracts in North Carolina.

Lumber Men Near Wilmington Declare Rockefeller Will Soon Own Practically All Valuable Timber Land in Eastern Part of State.

Wilmington, N. C., April 10.—(Special.)—Lumber men in this section express themselves as certain that it will only be a matter of time before the Standard Oil Company owns practically all the valuable timber land in this state. Several vast bodies of timber land have already been purchased by the Standard, and offers have been made to other lumber companies, and, if accepted, the Standard will take over the two large mills located in Wilmington, and which are the largest in eastern North Carolina.

All oil going to foreign countries is shipped in five or ten-gallon cans, and these are placed in a light pine box. Each year the Standard uses millions of these boxes, and their intention is to own their timber and thus save the middleman's profit. There is a box factory in this city which supplies the Standard with a large number of boxes. Last year one contract was made for a million boxes.

BELL WORKS FOR GOOD ROADS

Congressman from the Ninth Urges Cooperation of Postal Department.

Gainesville, Ga., April 10.—(Special.)—Congressman Thomas M. Bell has addressed the following letter to Postmaster General Cortelyou, which is of interest to his constituents of the ninth district, especially, as all of the people are now particularly interested in good roads:

"Now that the rural free delivery mail service is no longer an experiment, but a fixture, and is the greatest blessing that could possibly be extended to the people in the interior sections, I respectfully suggest that some sort of steps should be taken by this great government for the improvement of our public roads, which would greatly improve our mail facilities and immensely increase our wealth.

"This, I believe, could be done by using a portion of the funds derived from the sale of public lands, and by the cooperation of the government with the different states. Why should not the government appropriate money for the improvement of our public roads, as well as for rivers and harbors? It is all for the benefit of commerce and transportation, and the same end would be accomplished by one as the other. I believe that this great movement should be started by you, coming, as it would, from the most important branch of all departmental service and almost, if not entirely, under the supervision of the postmaster general.

"If you should get behind this important work and ultimately accomplish this much desired legislation, you will have done more for the American people than any individual, and immortalize yourself for all time to come. Please give me your views on this important subject."

PREPARING TO MOVE BERRIES.

Crop in North Carolina Will Be Very Large.

Wilmington, N. C., April 10.—(Special.)—Extensive preparations are being made for handling the strawberry crop, which will begin to move about the 20th of this month. Every indication points to the crop being fully as large, if not larger, than last year. Last season the farmers in the berry belt lost heavily by reason, it is said, of the car shortage.

This season there are about 7,500 acres of strawberries in eastern North Carolina, and the Armour car line people estimate that there will be 2,500 cars of berries. At the present time there are more than eight hundred refrigerator cars in this territory and additional cars are arriving daily.

Dust Explosions Do Damage.

Cincinnati, April 10.—Dust explosions endangered the lives of a score of firemen who battled long with flames that almost entirely destroyed the third intermediate school on Frank street early today. The loss of $25,000 is total. Eight hundred school children are deprived of schooling until temporary provision can be made for them.

"THIS IS MONEYS TOOK FROM YOU"

Money Stolen from Express Company is Returned.

Office at Washington, Ga., Was Robbed Saturday and White Boy Accused—The Money, With No Address on Package, Comes Back.

Washington, Ga., April 10.—(Special.)—The safe in the office of the Southern Express Company's office in this city was looted Saturday night while the agent, J. R. Smith, was at supper, and about $80 in gold was obtained. In the same chest containing the gold was between four and five hundred dollars in silver and greenbacks, but this was unmolested.

Circumstances pointed strongly to the guilt of a 17-year-old lad who had recently been discharged from the employ of the company, and he was brought before the agent and police and questioned as to his whereabouts on Saturday evening. When he became very much confused in his explanations, and made several contradictory statements regarding the matter, he was told that, unless the missing gold was forthcoming by noon today, he would be put behind prison bars.

Yesterday morning at 11 o'clock J. R. Smith, the agent for the express company, was handed a tobacco sack containing seven gold coins of $10 each, together with $10 in currency and silver. With the money, which was sent by a diminutive negro boy, was a note, sans address and sans signature, bearing these words, "This is the moneys that was taken from you." No arrest has been made.

JOE JUNG'S HOUSE BURNS.

The Chinaman Is Now in Jail in Atlanta.

Elberton, Ga., April 10.—(Special.)—Yesterday morning, about 2 o'clock, the house and contents of Joe Jung Elberton, a Chinaman, were totally destroyed by fire. Joe Jung is now in Fulton county jail under a charge of perjury. The family escaped in their night robes. It is not known whether or not the fire was of incendiary origin.

Two Killed in Wreck.

Wilmington, Del., April 10.—The southbound New York and Norfolk express on the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk railroad ran into a freight train at Exmoor, Va. Engineer Daniel Baker and Fireman Harry Wilson, of the express, were both killed. Passengers in the express were severely shaken up by the sudden stopping, and some of those in the sleeper were thrown from their berths, but all escaped serious injury. There was a heavy fog at the time of the collision.

Got in Way of Train.

Fitzgerald, Ga., April 10.—(Special.)—A negro hack driver was scared half to death and his hack demolished because he tried to dispute the right of way with a moving train while waiting for passengers at the depot.

CABLED PASTORATE OFFER.

Gainesville Baptist Church Calls Rev. John Harrison.

Gainesville, Ga., April 10.—(Special.)—In conference Sunday morning, the First Baptist church extended a unanimous call to Rev. John G. Harrison, of Macon, formerly pastor of the Tattnall Square Baptist church, and now occupying the chair of theology of Mercer university.

Rev. Mr. Harrison is now in Germany, pursuing his studies, and has been for the past two years. He is recognized as one of the leaders in the denomination in Georgia, and is a pastor and preacher of great ability.

The church cabled Mr. Harrison Sunday afternoon to know if he would accept the call. As his studies will not be finished until September, Mr. Harrison will not return until that time to do any pastoral work.

CODY TO HANG ON MAY 11TH

Several Murder Cases on Trial Before Houston Superior Court.

Perry, Ga., April 10.—(Special.)—Judge Felton reconvened court Monday morning. The first case tried was Butler Gaines, colored, for assault with intent to murder. A verdict of guilty of shooting at another was returned and a sentence of $100 or twelve months in the chaingang was imposed.

Columbus Cody, who was convicted of the murder of John Wilkes at the October term, was today resentenced to be hung Friday, May 11.

The case of Gray Parker for the murder of Joe Parker, is now being tried. Gray Parker is a white man, but Joe Parker was a negro. The accused is defended by Davis & Miller, of Macon.

The Man's Den.

(From Outing.)

Of late years our people have come to realize the fact that a man's room or a boy's room is as necessary to the properly conducted household as the lady's boudoir. These rooms, by common consent, are known as "dens."

A den usually consists of a small space, sometimes nothing more than an alcove, where the men or boys of the house may retreat, and the den is usually decorated with an abundant display of yachting flags, college colors, trophies of the hunt and athletic field, fishing rods, guns, etc., with probably a desk and an easy chair. But, as the wealth of the country increases, and luxuries multiply, the den gradually assumes a more and more primitive condition. This is the natural result of the reaction against the surrounding effete luxury of the household.

The surprise den is designed to supply a want suggested by many letters requesting ideas on how to decorate and fix up a den in one's house. The surprise den is constructed so that one may open the door from the dining-room, the drawing-room or the library, as the case may be, and usher the guests into a primitive pioneer cabin.

LEFT ONE COURT TO VISIT ANOTHER

Three Young Lawyers Had to Pay $10 Each.

Messrs Chishalm, Harwood and Oghurn, of the Savannah Bar, Listened Too Long to Speech and Were Fined by Judge Cann.

Savannah, Ga., April 10.—(Special.)—Three young lawyers of the Savannah bar, Messrs. Chisholm, Herwood and Ogburn, were this morning fined $10 each in the superior court for failure to answer when a case to which they had been assigned was called.

The young lawyers had been wooed from their attendance upon Judge Cann's court by the eloquence of Colonel Peter W. Meldrim, of counsel for Greene and Gaynor, which was being wafted across the intervening square from the federal court room.

Thinking they might have time to sit for a time at the "feet of Gamaliel," they wended their way to Judge Speer's court. Upon their return to Judge Cann's court they were haled before the bar, where the sentences were imposed.

The court took occasion to say that he never had to complain of the older members of the bar absenting themselves in such way.

He instanced two or three of the local luminaries of the profession, saying that they never would have done as did the young lawyers and leave the court room when they had a case assigned without having secured the permission of the judge.

POLICE CHIEFS AT A BANQUET

Thirteenth Annual Convention in Session at Hot Springs.

Hot Springs, Ark., April 10.—The thirteenth annual convention of the National Association of Chiefs of Police convened here today with the largest attendance in years. President Richard Sylvester, chief of police of Washington, D. C., called the convention to order. A short business session was held today and tonight a reception and a banquet was tendered the visitors.

ARRESTED FOR KIDNAPING.

Henry Seigler Held for Taking His Own Son.

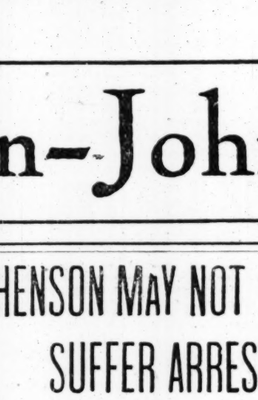

Augusta, Ga., April 10.—News was received by officers today of the arrest at Cleburne, Tex., of Henry L. Seigler, of this city, on the charge of kidnaping his son. Seigler was divorced from his wife several years ago and since that time has figured almost continuously in the courts because of his efforts to secure and retain the custody of his 9-year-old son who was awarded by the court to the mother. Nearly a year ago he forcibly took the child and before he could be apprehended escaped from the city, carrying the boy with him. Through much advertising he and the lad were found in Texas and placed under arrest. They will be brought back.

HENSON MAY NOT SUFFER ARREST

Not Thought Slayer of McKneeley will Be Held.

McKneeley, Who Killed His Nephew, Robert Morrow, Shot His Neighbor, Putnam, and Was Himself Killed, Was Buried Yesterday Afternoon.

Brooks Station, Ga., April 10.—(Special.)—J. T. Henson, the man who shot and killed A. L. McKneeley after the latter had run amuck, killing one man and wounding two others, has not been arrested and it is more than probable that no warrant will be sworn out.

J. T. HENSON.

Who Shot and Killed A. L. McKneeley Sunday Night.

Mr. Henson is known among his neighbors as a quiet, law-abiding citizen and made no effort to escape after the tragedy.

McKneeley, who, while under the influence of liquor, killed his nephew, Robert Morrow; shot off the arm of S. O. Putnam and attempted to shoot J. T. Henson, was buried yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The funeral of Robert Morrow occurred this morning from the Antioch church.

Can't Attend Meeting.

Savannah, Ga., April 10.—(Special.)—Savannah's two representatives on the board of trustees of the University of Georgia, will not be able to attend the Hill memorial and the meeting at which a new chancellor will be chosen, at Athens tomorrow. They are Peter W. Meldrim and Samuel B. Adams, both of whom are engaged in the Greene and Gaynor trial.

CHARLES WARNER DIES SUDDENLY

Well-Known Clerical Expert of Columbus Passes Away.

Columbus, Ga., April 10.—(Special.)—Charles A. Warner, one of the best-known citizens of Columbus, died about noon today at his home on Second avenue after an illness of only a few hours.

Mr. Warner worked until midnight last night at the office of the Georgia Fertilizer Company, where he has been doing office work for some time, and did not reach home until a late hour. The company's office work at this season of the year is such that it requires considerable night work to dispose of it properly, and Mr. Warner was faithful and diligently discharging the full duties of his position. After he returned home last night Mrs. Warner noticed that he was breathing rather heavily. She thought at first that he was simply tired, but as his breathing grew more labored and difficult she called in the others and a physician was hastily sent for. When he arrived he said that Mr. Warner was seriously ill. He gradually grew worse until he passed away at noon, after having been unconscious for a number of hours. Apoplexy is thought to have been the cause of his death.

Mr. Warner is survived by a wife and a number of children, and a sister, Mrs. Virginia Warner. He was one of the best known clerical experts in Columbus, and for years was bookkeeper at the cotton warehouse of Slade & Farish. He was a gentleman who was held in high esteem and liked by everyone, and the community was shocked at the wholly unexpected news of his death.

BRILLIANT MILITARY DISPLAY

Senator Tillman Presents Flag to Clemson College.

Columbia, S. C., April 10.—One of the most brilliant military displays ever seen at Clemson College, the home of John C. Calhoun, was witnessed there yesterday when Senator B. R. Tillman presented, on behalf of the board of trustees, the state flag of South Carolina to the corps of Clemson cadets.

The staff, which was presented to the cadets by Thomas G. White, of Beaufort, through his grandson, William P. White, who is a senior at the college, was sawed out of the heart of a Palmetto tree, cut upon one of the sea islands adjacent to Beaufort, and bears an appropriate inscription.

EXPECTED LIES TO PROVE BRAND

Witness Thought No Jury Would Believe Him.

Soldier Brought All the Way From Philippines To Impeach Testimony Given to Convict Albert Patrick of Murder of Rice.

New York, April 10.—Corporal Alex B. Stanberry, of the Thirteenth United States infantry, testified today that Charles F. Jones, the valet of William Marsh Rice, had admitted to him that he testified falsely in the trial of Albert T. Patrick, expecting that the jury would discredit his testimony and allow Patrick to go free. Corporal Stanberry declared also that Jones had said that if he were sure that he would receive only a light sentence for perjury he would come north and "tell the whole truth."

The testimony was given at a hearing on the question, whether Patrick shall have a new trial on the charge of the murder of Rice. Stanberry was brought from the Philippines to give his evidence.

District Attorney Jerome asked: "Did you consent to act with a man who attempted to swear another man's life away?"

"He told me afterwards that both he and Patrick were innocent. He told me he lied so much he thought that no jury would believe him, and he expected that he wouldn't be believed, and that Patrick would consequently go free.

"He told me afterwards that if only he would get a light sentence for perjury he would come north and tell the whole truth."

The hearing was then adojurned till tomorrow, when William K. Olcott, Patrick's counsel, said that John G. Blackman and Edward B. McKenzie, two Texas witnesses, will appear for Patrick.

PASTOR AGAINST PROHIBITION

Says That Temptation Should Remain But That Men Should Be Made Stronger.

Rev. J. T. Clinton, a Baptist minister of Boston, passed through the city yesterday on his way home from a trip to Florida.

Rev. Mr. Clinton has been in the public eye much recently because of his opposition to prohibition. He claims that there is no authority for it in the Bible. To a representative of The Constitution he said:

"It is true beyond question that prohibition only makes whisky more in demand and more sought after.

"The Christian and Biblical way is not to put temptation out of a man's way, but to make him strong enough to resist it."

LAY CORNERSTONE THURSDAY

Exercises at Beginning of Work on Orphans' Home Building at Hapeville.

The corner stone of the new main building of the Georgia Baptist orphans' home at Hapeville will be laid next Thursday morning at 11 o'clock.

At the exercises all the leading Baptist ministers of the city will be present.

An old-time Georgia barbecue will be served at the close of the formal exercises, and the pig which is roasted for the occasion will have been taken from the pen of the orphanage.

The building, when complete, will represent an outlay of $50,000, making the whole orphanage plant an investment of about $100,000.

Hon. John M. Green, who will preside over the exercises Thursday, is cnairman of the building committee and has worked hard and faithfully for the success of the undertaking and the speedy completion of the building.

The programme is as follows:

Opening Prayer—Dr. J. F. Purser.

Scripture Reading—Rev. O. J. Copeland.

Exercises by children in the home in charge of Rev. R. D. Hawkins, general manager.

Brief History of the Home—Written by Mrs. A. Adair, read by Dr. W. W. Landrum.

Present Conditions of Home—Dr. John E. White.

The Outlook—Dr. S. Y. Jameson.

The Relation of the Denomination to the Home—Judge E. H. Callaway, Augusta.

The Helper, Our Home Paper—Rev. R. D. Hawkins.

List of Article for Corner Stone—Read by J. B. Whitehead, secretary building committee.

Stone laid by Hon. W. J. Northen, president Georgia Baptist convention building committee. Architect, B. A. Pegin.

Opposition Not Probable.

Elberton, Ga., April 10.—(Special.)—Major Oglethorpe has cut off all further entries in the campaign in that county, Captain P. M. Hawes is almost assured of no opposition in his race for the senate from this, the thirtieth, district. Elbert furnishes the candidate under the rotation system, but the entire district has to nominate.

How to Exercise the Bowels

Your Intestines are lined inside with millions of little suckers, that draw the Nutrition out of food as it passes them.

But, if the food passes too slowly, it decays before it gets through. Then the little suckers draw Poison from it instead of Nutrition.

This Poison makes a Gas that injures your system more than the food should have nourished it.

You see, the food is Nourishment or Poison, just according to how long it stays in transit.

The usual remedy for this delayed passage (called Constipation) is to take a big dose of Castor Oil.

This merely make slippery the passage for unloading the current cargo.

It does not help the Cause of delay a trifle.

It does slacken the Bowel-Muscles more than ever, and thus weakens them for their next task.

Another remedy is to take a strong Cathartic, like Salts, Calomel, Jalap, Phosphate of Sodium, Aperient Water, or any of these mixed.

What does the Cathartic do?

It merely flushes-out the Bowels with a waste of Digestive Juice, set flowing into the Intestines through the tiny suckers.

* * *

But, the Digestive Juice we waste in doing this today is needed for tomorrow's natural Digestion. We cannot afford to lose it.

That's why Cascarets are the only safe medicine for the bowels.

They do not waste any precious fluid of the Bowels, as Cathartics do.

They do not relax the Intestines by greasing them inside like Castor Oil or Glycerine.

They simply stimulate the Bowel Muscles to do their work naturally, comfortably, and nutritiously.

And, the Exercise these Bowel Muscles are thus forced to take, makes them stronger for the future, just as Exercise makes your arm stronger.

Cascarets are as safe to use constantly as they are pleasant to take.

They are purposely put up like candy, so you must eat them slowly and let them go down gradually with the saliva, which is in itself, a fine, natural Digestive.

They are put up purposely in thin, flat, round-cornered Enamel boxes, so they can be carried in a man's vest pocket, or in a woman's purse, all the time, without bulk or trouble.

Price 10c a box at all druggists.

Be very careful to get the genuine, made only by the Sterling Remedy Company and never sold in bulk. Every tablet stamped "CCC."

GEO. W. L. POWELL DEAD.

Has Been Ill for Several Weeks—Funeral Will Occur This Afternoon at Two O'Clock.

George W. L. Powell, 66 years of age, died yesterday at his home in this city, 235 Peeples street, and will be buried this afternoon.

Mr. Powell was taken seriously ill very suddenly about three weeks ago and since then has been growing rapidly worse. He began sinking Saturday night. All the family were at his bedside when death came, except one son, Robert R. Powell, who lives in New York.

Mr. Powell was a son of Dr. Chapman Powell, a man who was well known among the older residents of Atlanta. Their old home place was on the present site of the Capital City Club. The old house was moved back when the club building was erected, but still stands just below the Baptist church on Ellis street. Of late years Mr. Powell has been a salesman for S. B. Turman & Co.

Mrs. Sebie L. Powell survives her husband, and the children are Mrs. W. L. Stoddard, of Maywood, N. J.; Mrs. Maude Turner, of Atlanta; Edward Powell, Alfred T. Powell and Robert R. Powell, of New York. The latter will reach the city this morning. Mr. Powell also has one brother, Alfred Powell, and three sisters living. The sisters are Mrs. J. W. Rucker, Mrs. W. J. Houston and Miss Martha Powell.

The pallbearers, who are requested to meet at the house, 235 Peeples street, at 2 o'clock this afternoon, are the following gentlemen: A. L. Waldo, W. M. McClellan, B. Thomas, Virgil Wilson, Frank Grogan and W. C. Dobbins.

YOUNG NURSES GRADUATED.

Interesting Exercises Were Held Last Night at Marist College Hall.

Seven young women, who have been taking a course in nursing at the St. Joseph's infirmary, were given degrees last night at the Marist college hall.

The address of the night was delivered by Dr. William Perrin Nicolson, after which he awarded the diplomas to the following graduates: Miss Jessie Mae Campbell, of Mansfield, Ga.; Miss Mary J. Sullivan, of Savannah, Ga.; Miss Willie Jackson, of Atlanta, Ga.; Miss Essie E. Carter, of Winterville, Ga.; Miss Anna Brundige, of Toronto, Canada; Miss Margaret Beall, of Macon, Ga., and Miss Minnie Tomlinson, of Cedartown, Ga.

The salutatory address was delivered by Miss Margaret Beall, of Macon, Ga., while Miss Essie E. Carter, of Winterville, Ga., was valedictorian. Dr. Floyd McRae presented the badges. A feature of the occasion was an address by Dr. Gunn.

ORME STREET SEWER VETOED

Mayor Woodward Once Again Turns Down the Famous Measure.

The Orme street sewer measure, passed at the last session of general council, was yesterday morning vetoed by Mayor Woodward. Mayor Woodward had once before vetoed an Orme street sewer ordinance, the one turned down yesterday, however, having a number of provisions added.

The money for the Orme street sewer was to be taken partly from the sum provided by the issuance of sewer bonds, and the mayor bases his veto on the ground that these bonds were voted to yield money for certain defined work, and that the Orme street sewer was not among this work.

The matter will come up before council Monday.

Strict Army Order On Food

Victorious Japanese Know the Secret of Strength and Health.

In the Japanese army during the late war with Russia, strict regulations were enforced to promote health among the soldiers. These regulations covered every phase of hygienic living. They were especially strict in regard to food.

"The origin of strength in the human body is good food," said these instructions to the conquering Japanese army. And this is just as true in America as it is in Japan. "The origin of strength in the human body is good food."

In this country we have the ideal good food. It is the food which gives to the body and brain perfect strength and perfect health. We refer to Malta-Vita, so often called "The Perfect Food" because it contains every food element the body needs, and in the exact proportions which science has shown are necessary to health and strength.

Malta-Vita is the whole of the best white wheat grown, mixed with finest barley malt extract. This is the reason it is so rich in vitalizing, refreshing, muscle-building, blood-making food elements. The wheat, after being thoroughly cleaned, is cooked and steamed until the starch cells break down. It is then mixed with the malt extract and rolled out into wafer-like flakes, every grain of wheat a flake. The malt extract, an active digestive agent, converts the gelatinized starch of the wheat into maltose, or malt sugar. Malt sugar is very nutritious and is easily digested even by the weakest stomach.

Malta-Vita is baked in great ovens until it is crisp and brown, ready to eat. That is how it comes to you,—the most strengthening, most delicious and cleanest food in the world. All grocers sell Malta-Vita. Now 10 cents. ***

Baroness Busche Recovering.

Washington, April 10.—Baroness Busche, wife of the counsellor of the German embassy, Baron Busche, who has been dangerously ill for more than a week, is recovering rapidly and her physicians say she is now out of danger. Her condition is still such, however, that she will not be able for some time to start on the European trip which she and her husband were about to make at the time she was taken ill.

GEORGE ADAIR IS REELECTED

Annual Elections Were Held at Athletic Club Last Night.

At the annual election of the Atlanta Athletic Club held last night, George Adair was reelected president for the coming year, while W. H. Glenn will again act as vice president.

GEORGE ADAIR.
Yesterday Reelected President of the Atlanta Athletic Club.

There was no opposition to the election of president and vice president, the only contest coming in the naming of the five club directors, those elected being as follows: Sam Williams, J. H. Porter, L. D. Scott, W. H. Patterson, Jr., and Harvey Hatcher.

The votes cast for the different candidates were as follows: G. W. Adair, for president, 329; W. H. Glenn, for vice president, 336; directors, Sam Williams, 245; J. H. Porter, 240; L. D. Scott, 240; W. H. Patterson, Jr., 228; Harvey Hatcher, 221; J. R. Compton, 159; Fred A. Hyot, 124; Howard Geidert, 114; George Lowman, 50.

The polls opened at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and closed at 9 o'clock last night, the candidates having been named several weeks earlier.

Insurance Bills Passed.

Albany, N. Y., April 10.—The senate today passed unanimously two of the insurance bills, one amending the general corporation law as to acquisition of real estate by life insurance companies, the other amending the penal code so as to prohibit the giving of rebates in life insurance business. Both bills have passed the assembly, and now go to Governor Higgins.

Savannah After Seaboard Offices.

Savannah, Ga., April 10.—(Special.)—The officers of the chamber of commerce held a meeting this morning at which a letter was addressed to the executive board of the Seaboard Air Line, in which they were requested to delay action in the matter of the location of the general offices until a committee from the chamber of commerce could appear before them and set forth Savannah's advantages.

Sutton Defeated Cutler.

New York, April 10.—George Sutton who has gained an international reputation as a billiard expert, defeated Albert G. Cutler, of Boston, in the afternoon game of the world's billiard championship tournament at 18.2 balk line by a score of 500 to 220. Sutton gave a fine exhibition of his skill, his two highest runs being 116 and 109, with an average of 20. Cutler made several spurts, his best efforts netting him 61, 50 and 40. The Boston man was outclassed, as Sutton's wonderful gathering shots and defe nursing gave him a commanding lead early in the game.

In the Spring.

The impure and impoverished condition of the blood in the spring, which is indicated by eruptions on the face and body, that tired feeling and other ailments, is always corrected by Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills, which act directly and peculiarly on the blood, ridding it of all impurities and making it rich and abundant.

Thousands annually testify to the great good Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills do, in curing all spring troubles, restoring health and strength, and building up the whole system.

Mrs. P. C. Babcock, 222 Pacific street, Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills, and regard them as the best spring medicine."

Accept no substitutes for Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills, for no substitutes act like them.

Play ball!

Vesuvius will get Naples yet.

Every day is wash day now in Zion City.

Ex-Elijah III Dowie is in no "peace to you" frame of mind.

Speaking about reform, it is high time that Vesuvius was suppressed.

If simplified spelling comes in vogue, it will probably be spelled "fonetik."

If you must do it, dear madam, make it a safe and sane housekeeping.

Fighting is said to be in progress in the Balkans. Another infallible spring sign.

The new boss of Zion City does not wear a prophet's beard. This is a hopeful sign.

Dowie may be mad, as is charged, but there has been much financial method in his madness.

The mighty white house shearer who went out for senatorial wool seems to be returning shorn.

After all the labor of the Roosevelt mountain, the result is generally a timid little g. o. p. mouse.

Great frauds are charged in the Russian election. It does look like a real election, then, doesn't it?

The love letters of old Dr. Dowie will be more interesting reading than the love letters of old Senator Platt.

Now watch old Dr. Dowie make a few hypnotic passes and take Zion City's strong box again to his bosom.

A republican "reformer" is after Son-in-Law Longworth's seat in congress. This looks like something worse than lese majeste.

Roosevelt—and swearing he would ne'er consent, consented. He always "lays down" at the psychological party moment.

Secretary Wilson says science has made crop failures a thing of the past. Then why all this talk about the failure of the ice crop.

It is possible that the corporate entity of the beef trust will finally reach a trial by the time the Panama canal is completed.

Colonel Bryan thinks Chinese learning has been overestimated. Unless the colonel is familiar with the Chinese language, how does he know?

Former United States Senator Billy Mason says the United States senate is a "con game." Well, the country is no longer a "come on." The pee-pul are dead wise.

It is reported from Russia that Japan is preparing to fight the United States. If Russia don't get out of Manchuria p. d. q. she'll find out who Japan is preparing to fight.

The Bailey amendment to the rate bill means that review by the court will be bona fide and not a mere procrastination pretext. The Knox plan practically leaves the situation as it is.

A Kansas postmaster says in a notice printed in the local weekly: "The postoffice has been moved from where it was to where it is now." We trust this fully explains the whereabouts of the postoffice.

Strange, isn't it, that the lower house of congress never sees an unconstitutional point in a bill, leaving the discovery to such able constitutional lawyers of the senate as Aldrich, Elkins and Knox?

The Albany (N. Y.) Evening Journal notes the drawing of the color line in Franklin, Pa. When Mayor William J. McConnell, of that place, assumed his office, the other day, he named a negro as special policeman. But two of the eleven councilman voted in favor of the negro's confirmation. Then the mayor announced that he would appoint his man from month to month, which led the councilmen to say that they would not provide for his pay. The town is all torn up over the "race issue."

THE INEVITABLE END OF DISFRANCHISEMENT.

Since it appears that Mr. Smith and his organ, The Atlanta Journal, are making sheep's-eyes at the "grandfather clause" as their best hope of blinding the white people of Georgia to the sinister possibilities of alleged negro disfranchisement, let us undertake a brief analysis of the claim The Journal puts forward for this notorious subterfuge. The Journal hugs itself with glee over the following utterance of Judge Taft, at Tuskegee, and through some process of reasoning known only to itself distorts it into a legal justification of the grandfather clause:

It is true that some state constitutions or laws with the so-called "grandfather" clauses may operate temporarily to exclude the negro, but as they expire in effect, the limitations on adult male suffrage must become nothing more than educational and property qualifications applicable to white and negro alike.

Now Secretary of War Taft very emphatically stated that it was impossible to enact any negro disfranchisement law capable of standing a supreme court test of the fifteenth amendment. Further in his address he referred to the possibility that the grandfather clause "might" be effective "temporarily" in excluding the negro. He also said: "AS THEY (GRANDFATHER CLAUSES) EXPIRE IN EFFECT, THE LIMITATIONS ON ADULT MALE SUFFRAGE MUST BECOME NOTHING MORE THAN EDUCATIONAL AND PROPERTY QUALIFICATIONS APPLICABLE TO WHITE AND NEGRO ALIKE."

For the sake of argument, let us concede an impossible thing—that the supreme court declares the grandfather clause constitutional. Even then, after its effect has expired—and none of these clauses run for more than a few years—"limitations on adult suffrage must become nothing more than educational and property qualifications, applicable to WHITE AND NEGRO ALIKE." That is what Secretary Taft says, and The Journal jubilantly quotes him as authoritative. So that during its short life the grandfather subterfuge may protect the illiterate white—if the supreme court and election managers will let it. ON ITS EXPIRATION, EDUCATIONAL AND PROPERTY QUALIFICATIONS APPLY TO WHITE AND NEGRO ALIKE.

To give this lame device even the shadow of permanent efficiency, the white voters of the state must every one become educated during its brief operation. Is that possible, even in the dreams of demagogues? Every sane man knows it is not.

Then—

WHAT EARTHLY PROTECTION DOES IT AFFORD THE ILLITERATE WHITE MAN WHO REACHES VOTING AGE AFTER ITS EXPIRATION? NONE WHATEVER. HE LOSES HIS RIGHT TO VOTE JUST AS DOES THE UNEDUCATED NEGRO. HE HAS THE PLEASURE OF SEEING EDUCATED NEGROES ELBOWING EDUCATED WHITES AT THE POLLS, WHILE HE STANDS, STRIPPED OF HIS BALLOT, POWERLESS TO ASSIST HIS WHITE FRIEND OR NEIGHBOR IN A CRITICAL ELECTION.

THAT IS THE INFAMOUS SPNCTACLE THAT LIES CONCEALED IN THE ULTIMATE OPERATION OF ALLEGED NEGRO DISFRANCHISEMENT LAWS. THE EDUCATED NEGRO VOTE ENTERING THE BALLOT BOX. THE ILLITERATE WHITE VOTE ABSOLUTELY BARRED.

DO WE WANT IT AS A SUBSTITUTE FOR GEORGIA'S PRESENT SAFE AND LEGAL PROVISIONS, WHICH ELIMINATE THE NEGRO AS A POLITICAL FACTOR WITHOUT AFFECTING A SINGLE WHITE VOTE?

Deep Water at Carrabelle.

A new, easily accessible and economical outlet for the products of Georgia, and—in a large measure—the entire northwest, is the logical conclusion of the effort now no foot to make a deep-water port of Carrabelle, Fla., situated on the gulf of Mexico, but at present denied the benefit of its advantages of location because of its narrow channel to the gulf. President J. P. Williams, of the Georgia, Florida and Alabama railroad, with its southern terminus at Carrabelle, has addressed a strong lettter to Congressman Lamar, of Florida, in which he outlines the saving that will inevitably accrue to the shippers of Georgia, not to mention those of the northwest, by a reasonable appropriation for widening the channel at this Florida port.

President Williams shows that Carrabelle has hitherto attained no greater importance as an outlet for the reason that heavy lighterage, insurance and freight charges from the wharves to shipside have largely offset the fact that it affords a section of Georgia rich in lumber, naval stores and cotton a short and cheap route to deep water, and the wheat-fields of the west a port of discharge 100 miles nearer than the South Atlantic ports. A single item of this letter, showing the keen interest of the turpentine operators, the lumbermen and the cotton planters of Georgia, will be of enlightening value. In this connection President Williams, referring to the saving of freight through the deep-water development of Carrabelle, says:

The saving to the shippers of naval stores, lumber and cotton in one year would amount to $285,625.00, or $89,625.00 more than the additional appropriation now required, under Captain Cavanaugh's own statement, to deepen East Pass to twenty-one feet, at mean low water, and to secure a channel to the wharves at Carrabelle 20 feet in depth and 100 feet wide, with an adequate turning basin.

It will be seen at a glance that the harbor improvements asked will be more than paid for by the saving to the shippers of Georgia in one year's time. President Williams adds that even with the present railroad development, and with deep water, that "there will be a saving to the people of from $350,000 to $400,000 per annum. This computation does not take into account the fact that the Georgia, Florida and Alabama railroad is far from a finished route. At present it operates from Carrabelle to Cuthbert, Ga., straight as the crow flies. Already it intersects the Central of Georgia and the Atlantic Coast Line twice, and the Louisville and Nashville once, thus throwing it in touch with the east, north and west through these widespreading trunk lines. The road is, moreover, in process of construction toward Columbus, Ga. When it reaches that point it will tap the Southern railway, with its tremendous ramifications; completing, in a remarkable manner, the chain through which it offers cheap and speedy access to a gulf port from every portion of the south.

The advantage thus offered will be of material benefit to Atlanta, in its restless expansion, and it will, in similar degree, help the development of the magnificently rich section through which the road passes as well as all the inland producing counties of the state. President Williams also demonstrates that the improved facilities at Carrabelle will afford another outlet to the coal and iron fields of Alabama and, as previously noted, to the tremendous granaries of the northwest. Under the existing industrial status these inducements would be sufficient to enlist the persistent and enthusiastic aid of the Georgia and southern congressional delegation in the request of this Florida port. But when it is borne in mind that Carrabelle offers, by reason if its adjacency and land-locked harbor, unrivaled facilities when the Panama canal puts the markets of the Orient 6,000 miles nearer the south, there is extra incentive to the congressmen of this section to unite their influence in a determined campaign.

President Williams logically and completely answers the objections raised to the government investment at Carrabelle. He is due infinite credit for his strenuous activity toward supplying the south with an other convenient port of entry and exit; no less so for the energy, intelligence and strong faith in himself and his work which have characterized his development of the resources of an unusually fertile section of Georgia.

Our Rushing Times.

It sometimes requires an isolated event to demonstrate to the people of America—we might say, the world—the tremendous speed with which history has been making during the last ten or fifteen years. We lose sight of it during our absorption in personal affairs, or in the attention with which we read and study events confined to our own states or the nation.

The Springfield Republican gives a thumbnail sketch of Blanco, the last governor of Cuba under Spanish domination, and comments on the curious phase to which we have referred. The Republican says:

There are students in our colleges today who cannot remember General Blanco. They were too young to be much impressed by him when he was most conspicuously before the American public. General Blanco is dead, in Spain; and it was General Blanco who succeeded Weyler as governor-general in Cuba, nine years ago, and who commanded the Spanish forces in that island during the Spanish-American war. As soon as the war broke out the general sank into obscurity, for the fighting did not reach Havana, where he had his headquarters. In combatting the Cuban insurrection, before the American intervention, he adopted a milder policy than Weyler's, and sought to win back the people by means of the autonomy idea. He might have succeeded in a measure had there been no explosion on the battleship Maine, for in the absence of that inflammatory event our government would surely have deferred intervention for a much longer time.

We would make an assertion even more rash than that of The Republican. It seems probable that not alone the students in colleges but men of mature years and minds who were actively engaged in business during Blanco's regime, could not, on the spur of the moment, recall his role in the finale of Spanish Cuba. There would, of course be a vague familiarity in the name, "Blanco"—but had the question been suddenly put to an average dozen newspaper readers, there would have been a scurry to alamanacs and current biographies in search of the exact facts.

Portentous events have transpired since Blanco's time. We have had troubles of our own growing out of the Spanish-American war; there have been other conflicts somewhat dimming its details in our memories, and the map of the orient has been changed, politically, speaking, but recently. This, too, is only touching the high lights of what is commonly known as history.

It would be difficult to decide whether this curious defect of the public memory grows out of a surplusage of newspapers, and their methods, or the fact that we are living in an era packed with momentous occurrences in a degree that has no parallel in history.

HAD FIGHT IN THE THEATER.

Cause of a Threatened Stampede at Bijou To Be Investigated by Recorder.

Homer Leathers and C. G. Upchurch, two young white men, will be arraigned in the recorder's court this morning on the charge of fighting in the Bijou about two weeks ago.

The alleged fight between the young men was the cause of the cry of fire being raised in the theater and with the result that there came near being a stampede. A number of women and children ran from the theater and two women are said to have fainted.

Leathers was arrested at the time of the trouble, but Upchurch was not found until yesterday morning. He was arraigned in the recorder's court and his case set down for this morning in order that Leathers and his attorneys might be notified.

GEORGIA EDITORS ON CAMPAIGN

Disgusted.

(From The Mount Vernon Monitor.)

There are sensible men all over this country who started out to support Hoke Smith for governor, who are already disgusted with his subterfuge of negro disfranchisement, and are honest enough to admit that Hoke has never shown a plan for its accomplishment that can begin to compare with the plan which long ago accomplished the same thing.

Railroad Commission's Work.

(From The Barnesville News-Gazette.)

The Georgia railroad commission by reducing freight rates within the past year have saved to the people close to a million dollars. But then the commission should have put the railroads out of business entirely—they are doing too much harm to be allowed to exist in this state.

Planning New Party.

(From The LaGrange Graphic.)

The Atlanta Journal don't want anybody pledged to "future loyalty" to the democratic party. Certainly not! The Hoke Smith-Tom Watson ring might have to start a new party to carry out their schemes.

Watson's Vindicitive Aim.

The Keifer bill to reduce the representation of southern states in congress would change the representation of Georgia from 11 to 6, and of the entire south from 98 to 60. The declaration of Tom Watson, in his magazine, that such a change would make no difference to Georgia or her people, has aroused the indignant protest of Georgia congressmen and other public men. With his disfranchisement proposition Tom Watson is working for democratic reduction.

Uncover the Facts.

(From The Fort Valley Leader.)

If Hon. Pope Brown will undertake to divulge the inside history of that Hoke Smith-Atlanta Journal-Tom Watson deal in his Perry speech The Leader will guarantee a record-breaking attendance.

Trap To Catch Votes.

(From The Nashville Herald.)

The disfranchisement issue is purely a campaign issue. No such unconstitutional law will ever be passed in Georgia.

Trying To Fool Voters.

(From The Darien Gazette.)

Yes, Pauline, all the political talk about the railroads is for the purpose of fooling the people just long enough to scoop in the offices. All this hue and cry against the railroads will cease after the primary election.

Dr. Jekyl and Mr. Hyde Career.

(From The Milledgeville News.)

Hoke Smith could never spare the time from money making to go to the legislature or elsewhere to help make the laws he advocates. Neither did he ever help others who wanted to do these things. Hoke as citizen and Hoke as candidate present as great an extreme in the two characters as Dr. Jeckel and Mr. Hide. He has appealed to every prejudice in the state, and in our opinion he is badly defeated, and it would not surprise us to see him continue the race as an independent. We do not say he will, but just wait and watch. Men like him are the kind who do.

A Ridiculous Pose.

(From The Southern Field.)

Georgia was never more prosperous than today, or her state affairs better or more faithfully and honestly administered. And yet Hoke Smith tries to make the intelligent voters believe that Georgia is on the brink of ruin, and he is the political messiah raised up to save the people. The idea of a lawyer, and an Atlanta damage suit lawyer at that, saving anything but his fees is laughingly ridiculous. But there are five other equally as able and honorable gentlemen candidates for the office. When the crowd backing Hoke Smith's candidacy must save our state, it is time to throw up our charter and ask congress to give us a provisional government.

Becoming Prepared.

(From The Statesboro News.)

Negroes are too busy getting education to work on the farm. They propose to do the voting when Hoke Smith is elected governor.

Effect of Educational Threat.

(From The Nashville Herald.)

Since the great hubbub arose about the disfranchisement of the negro the attendance at the negro schools has increased at a wonderful rate all over the state. At Columbus there are five negroes to one white child in the public schools. The voters of Georgia should put the so-called disfranchisers out of business.

Watson's War Cry.

(From The Macon County Citizen.)

Down with the vagabond damnable, polluted democracy—Thomas E. Watson.

Now isn't that a glorious war cry to rally Georgia democrats, and itsn't it a nice flag for democrats to fight under?

Asking No Quarter.

(From The Moultrie Observer.)

It begins to look like Dr. Nunnally is going to be the cock of the walk in the line of debating. Hoke Smith is accused of giving him the whole road.

At the Charity Bar.

(From The Griffin News and Sun.)

That charity oft begins at home
We do not dispute at all;
And Reformer Hoke Smith wisely keeps it there,
When he takes a charity high ball.

Hoke Evading Nunnally.

(From The Columbus Ledger.)

Hoke Smith goes a long way to keep from meeting Dr. Nunnally. He has been yelling about Clark Howell not meeting him, and now he is dodging Dr. Nunnally.

An Unholy Alliance.

(From The Rome Tribune.)

The Smith-Watson combination is an unholy combination—a combination that seeks to destroy the good old democratic party—the people of Georgia owe it to themselves to smash it, good and proper.

Howell's Serivce To State.

(From The Mount eVrnon Monitor.)

Though still a young man, Clark Howell has served his state well in her legislative halls, and holds a very prominent place as editor of one of the south's great daily newspapers.

Disfranchisement Agitation.

(From The Miller News.)

A bill is being urged reducing the number of representatives in eleven southern states from ninety-eight to sixty-one. If this is done, the southern states will be in the hands of the northern republicans, and they will run us to suit themselves. This bill has been introduced to balance with the disfranchisement of the negro, of which there is so much talk. And still there are men (Hoke Smith for instance) who are going up and down the world preaching to the people that this is the only salvation for the south. When our representatives are cut down almost half we are goners and the word can't help it.

HONOR PAID MEMORY OF CHANCELLOR HILL

Distinguished Georgians, Gathered at Athens, Pay Tribute to Great Educatur.

TRUSTEES MEET TODAY; MAY NOT NAME SUCCESSOR

Governor Terrell, Justice Cobb and Many Other Leading Citizens of State, Besides Those From Elsewhere, Expressed Appreciation for the Departed.

Athens, Ga., April 10.—(Special.)—The memory of Walter Barnard Hill, the beloved chancellor of the state university, was honored this afternoon on the campus of the University of Georgia, where but a few months since he ruled supreme over the hearts and destinies of more than four hundred of the young men of Georgia.

The memorial exercises were a fitting tribute to the great man who had so successfully guided the university for six years and whose death came just as he was beginning to execute some of the magnificent plans there were ever made for the development of the university.

At 10 o'clock this morning the students of the university, four hundred strong, met at the chapel. Into the hands of each boy was placed by the people of Athens a floral tribute. Then the students, in company with Dean Barrow and the members of the faculty, marched in a body to Oconee cemetery, where they covered the grave of the dead chancellor with the sweetest flowers of the spring.

At 4 o'clock this afternoon the chapel was filled to overflowing with students and citizens and quite a number of distinguished people from abroad, who had gathered to pay tribute to the memory of Chancellor Hill.

Address of Hon. N. E. Harris.

The opening address was by Hon. N. E. Harris, of Macon, chairman of the committee of trustees in charge of the memorial exercises and a lifelong friend of Mr. Hill. He read a full and able sketch of the life of the dead chancellor.

Judge E. H. Callaway, of Augusta, spoke of the relations of Chancellor Hill to the board of trustees. He declared him to have been a matchless leader, wise in counsel and yet never dictatorial, a leader in whom the board always had implicit confidence. Judge Callaway concluded his address with a very eloquent tribute to Mr. Hill.

Professor Bocock's Tribute.

Following Mr. Harris came Professor W. H. Bocock, who spoke of the relation of Chancellor Hill to the University of Georgia. Among other things Professor Bocock said: "I wish to make the point that in developing his plans for the future of the University of Georgia, Mr. Hill conceived its functions in the broadest spirit of democracy. If education be the surest path to aristocracy in a republic, Mr. Hill felt that the way must be made accessible to all the youth of the state.' He conceived the university as the keystone of the arch of public education. But more than this, he sought from the beginning to bring its work into close relation to the people and apply its scientific activities to the solution of vital problems of interest to the masses. We shall always associate Mr. Hill's name with the great expansion of the University's lands and buildings, but these are the mere externals of a deeper policy."

Recollections of Chancellor.

Dean David C. Barrow was the next speaker, and he delivered a tribute of rare beauty. He referred to the fact that he was in college with Mr. Hill, and gave a number of interesting incidents of those college days. He told of how Mr. Hill endeared himself to the people of Athens from the very first, when he came here as chancellor, and how deeply the Athens people mourned his death. He said that Mr. Hill came to the chancellorship in the spirit of a little child and did the prayer of the wise man was his prayer: "I am but a little child; I know not how to go out or come in; give therefore thy servant an understanding heart to judge Thy people." He spoke also of the beautiful friendship that existed between the chancellor and the members of the faculty.

Dean Barrow, after remarking on the high tribute paid the chancellor by the students and citizens living near the campus as he lay dying, a tribute made most striking during Christmas week, in that no fireworks were discharged and not a sound broke the stillness of the solemn night, concluded his address as follows: "After the purchase of the campus extension had been made, he told the faculty one day of his dream of the great university of the future, its drives, its halls, its residences, its life. It was a beautiful picture he presented. Whether we will live to see it materialize or not, who can tell? Our Ulysses will never return, and who can bend his bow? After all has been said that may be said, he did great deeds because he was great; he did lovely deeds because he was kind; he did good deeds because he was pure in heart and could see God."

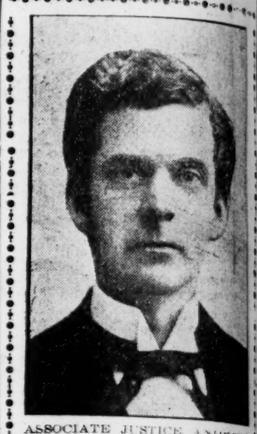

Judge Cobb's Address.

Hon. Andrew J. Cobb, or the supreme court of Georgia, spoke of Mr. Hill's relations to the bench and bar. He declared him to have been a scholarly lawyer, a student of the principles of law, a close reader of the literature of law. His information was wide, his culture was broad and he was a lawyer and not merely a practitioner.

He was thoughtful. He was conscious that his profession was distinctly a calling of truth. He realized that the whole fabric of the law was laid on truth as its foundation. He clung to the truth wherever it appeared. It is therefore not strange when we find him from his early manhood a consistent follower of Him who said "I am the truth."

Judge Cobb referred to the fact that he was one of the organizers of the Georgia Bar Association and its first secretary. He also referred to the fact that upon his acceptance of the chancellorship he was made a life member of the association, an honor which prior to that time had been conferred only twice, first upon Chief Justice Beckley and then upon Major Charles H. Smith, better known as "Bill Arp."

He referred to his work in assisting in the organization of the Mercer law school at Mercer university, also to his work in revising the code of Georgia. He told of the fact that Mr. Hill was one of the six American orators at the banquet in 1890 in New York in celebration of the centennial of the federal judiciary. Concluding, Judge Cobb said: "His accomplishments were great, his ideals were high, his professional career was blameless. He was a fearless and faithful advocate of truth. Such was the estimate placed upon him by his brethren of the bar who practiced by his side, as well as his brothers upon the bench who were always enlightened by his arguments."

ASSOCIATE JUSTICE ANDREW J. COBB,
Who Is Suggested as Successor of the Late Chancellor Hill, of the University of Georgia.

President Charles Smith.

President Charles Lee Smith, of Mercer university, spoke of the relations of Mr. Hill to the denominational colleges. He called special attention during his remarks to the advocacy by Mr. Hill of freedom of thought and to his attack on intolerance. He urged the students to emulate his rare virtues. Dr. J. E. Dagney, president of Emory college, spoke on the same subject, referring to the advocacy of Chancellor Hill of the exemption of college endowments from taxation in this state. His tribute to Mr. Hill for the interest he took in the denominational colleges was very fine.

Dr. I. S. Hopkins.

Dr. I. S. Hopkins, of Athens, spoke of Mr. Hill's relations to the church. He was one of the most feeling tributes paid, and emphasized the church relations of the dead chancellor by declaring that through them came all the virtues of which the other orators had spoken.

Dr. Wallace Buttrick.

Dr. Wallace Buttrick, secretary of the general education board, made appropriate remarks, and, with the reading of the letter from Mr. George Foster Peabody, the exercises were concluded.

Trustees Meet Today.

The trustees will meet tomorrow at 4 o'clock to take up the election of a chancellor. It is not certain whether or not the board will elect at this time, some desiring to carry over the election to the June meeting.

Governor Terrell's Speech.

Governor Terrell Spoke as follows:

"Mr. Chairman and Ladies and Gentlemen: Georgia and her educational institutions suffered a great loss in the death of Chancellor Hill. By this ending of an exalted life a moral vacancy has been created; there were few who were constructed in gentler mold. A man of rare culture has been removed from society; thousands will miss his pleasing personality. A lawyer profound in the principles of the science has permitted to abandon his research. An able educator has surrendered the chair of learning to some one who shall come hereafter. His conduct in the class room and his devotion to this great institution have endeared him to old and young alike.

"Walter B. Hill was a devoted son of Georgia. As a citizen he was an exemplary type; as a lawyer he belonged to the finished school, and as a chancellor of the state university he was an idealistic success. His life and character were so blended with his scholarly attainments as to fit him in a peculiar way for the position in which he rounded out his last days. His efforts in behalf of the university of Georgia will live forever. Of him it may be said:

"'He was a scholar, and a ripe and good one;
Exceedingly wise, fair spoken and persuading.'

"My acquaintance with Chancellor Hill was only casual, until I was elected to the office of governor. I had admired him as a citizen and lawyer, for his many admirable qualities and distinguished attainments. But after I entered upon the duties of governor I frequently came into close contact with him, where I had an opportunity of studying him as an official, and it was here that I formed the estimate of him as a valuable public official whose life was thoroughly interwoven with the advancement of the institution that claimed the best part of his heart and the last of his life work.

"It seems to ordinary conception a strange dispensation of providence that defleets and cuts down evolution progress just at a time when it is about to touch something yet a little higher in the realms of knowledge. But this is in accord with that struggling effort of man which we are pleased to call civilization. It is part of the history of all the aeons of the past; it is a phase of the many conflicting forces at work in the present, and it is destined to stand during that vast expanse of the future in the way of that higher accomplishment for which men have ever yearned and which will always be denied by Him who presides over the mystical universe of thought.

"In accordance with this inscrutable plan, on the 28th day of December, 1906, our Heavenly Father appeared and spoke the fateful words, 'Thy labor shall cease, thy work of accomplishment shall be my day end forever. Come thou to My eternal kingdom.' With hearts bowed in respect for the lamented and the cultured dead, let us in sincere appreciation and sympathy invoke: 'Peace to his ashes.'"

Watson a Traitor to the South.

(From The Heflin, Ala., New Era.)

In a recent issue of his magazine Tom Watson gave an expression on the subject of southern representation in congress which shows him up in the true light of his political views. He said that Georgia would be as well off with six representatives in congress as she is with eleven, and applied the same logic to all the southern states. This is surprising to say the least, coming as it does from a man of Watson's gifts and qualifications, and it shows that HE IS AN ENEMY TO THE INTERESTS OF THE SOUTHERN PEOPLE AND THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY, WHICH STANDS AS OUR PROTECTION. A man who can openly advocate such views as the reduction of representation in congress is a VILLIAN AT HEART, no matter what section of the county he may be from, and when a native born southerner, who has been taught the principles of democracy from infancy and whose very environments scented democratic principles, stands up before the American people and advocates such undemocratic, un-American, un-constitutional and unprecedented measures, PUBLIC OPINION SHOULD AND DOES BRAND HIM AS A TRAITOR WHO IS NOT WORTHY OF THE RESPECT OF HIS OWN PEOPLE. Tom Watson is a sworn enemy of the democratic party AND THE SOUTH and his drastic views should be trampled under foot with scorn

SOME STAR PERFORMERS AT "JEDGE BRILES'" SHOW

A Black Dr. Jeykle and Mr. Hyde.

JIM McINTOSH is a negro cabman who runs a hack from the old carshed. Since the terminal station went into business there has not been nearly so many customers for the cabmen at the old depot, and this caused McIntosh to do a few extra turns in order to get more trade.

He was arraigned in the recorder's court yesterday afternoon on the charge of making misrepresentations to patrons. Witnesses testified that he had a way of telling every person who called for a certain cab that he was the man wanted.

On Monday afternoon a lady and a gentleman stepped from the depot and the man said called out:

"I want John Humphries' cab."

"Right this way, sir," replied Jim McIntosh. "John Humphries is not here today and I am driving his cab."

Other cabmen standing near heard the statement and they called for Policeman Harper and had McIntosh arrested.

McIntosh admitted that he had represented himself as John Humphries, but claimed that he was just "running 'long with the gentleman."

"Well, we will run along with you to the amount of $5.75," the recorder told him, "and I instruct Officer Harper to ask the chief of police to revoke your permit to drive a cab."

A Victim of Circumstances.

Otis Stinson, a negro who has the wonderful power of stopping to drink before he gets drunk on Decatur street, was the victim of circumstances Monday afternoon when he started to leave a saloon where he had taken a dram. He was so victimized that the police took him in and he was yanked before the recorder yesterday morning.

It was explained to the recorder that Stinson had fallen against and broken a large plate glass door in the saloon. At the first blush any and everybody would have said that Stinson was drunk when he smashed a glass door in a saloon, but he wasn't.

All the witnesses agreed that Stinson was sober.

That called for further explanation and when the recorder asked him to explain the strange phenomena, Stinson replied: "Ise one nigger, Jedge Briles, what kin take er dram widout gittin' drunk. I tuk mer dram yistiddy and jest ez I wus leabin' de serloon mer heel slid on de wet sawdust on de floor. I hain't nebber been ter no skatin' rink an' dat sawdust wus more den I could stan'. I had ter lan' somewhars an' I hit de glass door and it went ter smash."

When it was further explained that Stinson had paid for the broken glass the case against him was dismissed.

Soldiers as Prize Fighters.

There was a prize fight between two Fort McPherson soldiers in the rear of a saloon on Decatur street Monday evening and yesterday morning Recorder Broyles was called upon to decide the battle as an official referee.

Hots McClain, of company F, Seventeenth infantry, and Frank Wirth, of company I, of the same regiment, were the pugilists. It seems that there had long been bad feeling between the two men and when they met morning but a fight would settle matters.

The two soldiers repaired to an alley in the rear of a saloon and taking off their coats they rolled up their sleeves and went at it.

Hots McClain was the smaller of the two men, but he had some advantage because he wasn't quite as drunk as the other fellow.

There was only one round. Wirth landed a gim-slinger on Hots' thorax and the force of the blow and the effects of too much beer knocked Hots out.

As Hots lay in a pool of blood and three beers failed to revive him, the police were called in.

Wirth claimed in the recorder's court yesterday morning that he had not the faintiest recollection of the fight, he was that far gone with beer and whisky.

Hots said he remembered everything very distinctly. His face was bruised and swollen and one eye was black.

The recorder believed that Wirth was the aggressor and fined him $10. The case against Hots was dismissed.

TRIAL WAIVED BY HIGHTOWER

Grand Jury will Probably Take Up Case Tomorrow.

Walter Hightower, through his attorney, John W. Moore, waived a preliminary trial before Justice Puckett yesterday and he will remain in the Tower on the murder warrant until the grand jury acts on the case, which will probably be tomorrow.

Hightower has been held on a warrant charging murder which was sworn out by a county policeman. He was to have been given a preliminary hearing before Justice Puckett yesterday, but Attorney Moore decided to waive such a trial.

"There are two reasons why I could not go into a commitment trial," stated Attorney Moore yesterday, "one was because our leading witness, Mrs. Carrie Bryant, is still unable to leave her bed, and the other is that I am physically unable to attend court."

Mr. Moore was recently injured in an accident to an elevator in Temple Court.

Mrs. Bryant was shot and seriously wounded by L. B. Wilmouth, who was afterwards killed by Hightower. She is at her home, 110 Hampton street, and the bullet has not yet been found. The wound is in the thigh.

On the night of April 4 Wilmouth, through jealousy, shot Mrs. Bryant, who was on the eve of returning to her husband, from whom she had ben separated. Hightower, Mrs. Bryant's brother, attacked Wilmouth and the two had a hand-to-hand fight in the house at 110 Hampton stret and afterwards on the streets. Wilmouth was shot once in the back and stabbed a number of times. The police found him lying dead in the street.

If the grand jury indicts Hightower he will make an effort to give bond, as he claims the killing of Wilmouth was in self-defense.

CANDLE SCARE HITS CAPITOL

Standard Oil Company Withdraws from State.

A certificate of withdrawal on the part of the Standard Oil Company to the effect that all of the offices and places of the company in Georgia would be discontinued hereafter, sent to the office of Secretary of State Phil Cook yesterday, created considerable excitement in the corridors of the state capitol yesterday.

There were all kinds of expressions on the part of many persons who happened to be there. The idea that there would be no more Standard Oil in Georgia looked to be about the most sensational bit of news that has happened lately. There was lots of talk about Missouri.

"Three cheers for trust-free Georgia," shouted one old veteran. "But ain't this state going to be pretty dark in spots and places where they don't have gas and electric lights?" questioned another. "This going back to candles all in a minute is liable to take a good many folks by surprise."

Then the manager of the Standard Oil Company in Atlanta was called up. An explanation followed. It seems that the Standard Oil Company of Kentucky, with headquarters at Covington, has controlled all of Georgia save some six counties in the southwestern part of the state. Recently these six counties also were secured by the Blue Grass corporation, which meant that all of the state was under the control of the Kentucky company.

In other words, it was only one of those legal technicalities which do not effect the real facts in the case and has nothing whatever to do with the selling of oil in any part of Georgia.

NEW TRANSFERS; NEW SCHEDULES

Street Car Company Makes Important Changes.

Transfers Will Be Good on Any Line Not Printed as Exceptions. Quicker Schedules To Be Inaugurated on Several Lines.

The Georgia Railway and Electric Company made changes in some of its schedules and issued new transfers yesterday. The new transfers will be used for the first time today. Some of the new schedules will go into effect this morning and others will not go into effect until next Sunday.

Beginning today cars will run on the Washington and Courtland street lines every 10 minutes all day. The old schedule gave 10 minutes only a part of the day.

On and after next Sunday cars will run on Peachtree street every 5 minutes all day.

On the same date the Peachtree and Ponce de Leon cars will run every 10 minutes.

The Woodward avenue and Pine street cars will run every 15 minutes instead of every 20 minutes, and the schedule will last all the year round.

Cars on the south Decatur and Lakewood line will run every 20 minutes, instead of every 30 minutes.

The new transfers are not exactly what are known as "blanket transfers," but are very nearly so. A transfer will be good on any line except those that are parallel or that return on the same route. There will be no line punched on the transfer, but those over which it is not good will be printed in large type. A person receiving the transfer can ride on any line he chooses provided it is not one of the excepted lines so printed. Some of the lines have no exceptions at all, and there are only a few on any of them.

The street car company has also decided to enforce rigidly the ordinance prohibiting people from spitting in the cars. Any one caught spitting on the floor of a trolley car hereafter will be arrested and prosecuted.

Superintendent Nym Hurt says that he believes the new schedules and new transfers will give satisfaction to the patrons of the company.

A NEW INDUSTRY FOR DEMOPOLIS.

The Manufacture of Coffins and Cedar Chests—Demopolis Coffin and Cabinet Company.

Evidence of the progress that Demopolis is making as a manufacturing center is nowhere more clearly evidenced than by reference to the fact that new industries are springing up which are bound to take root and become prime factors in the city's future development. I find that in about thirty days the Demopolis Coffin and Cabinet Company will be in operation with a new plant and one of the best equipped factories in the south for the manufacture of a line of medium-priced coffins and general cabinet work. The company has secured the services of some expert workmen and, besides the above, intend adding to the product a fine line of cedar chests. Cedar abounds in this locality, and there is no reason why this latter should not develop into a large and lucrative business. At any rate, the outlook for such an industry is of the most encouraging character, and the writer is pleased to make mention of the new enterprise through these columns, assured as he is that any orders placed with the company can not fail to result in mutual satisfaction. The enterprise is, as the heading indicates, a Demopolis one, composed of Demopolis people and controlled by Demopolis capital.

REGULARS CALL ON GEN. DUVALL

Officers of 17th Visit Department of Gulf.

Some fifty or more of the officers of the Seventeenth United States infantry, Colonel Van Orsdale, made their first formal duty call to Brigadier General Duvall, lately appointed commander of the department of the gulf. General Duvall received his many callers in his handsome offices on the fourteenth floor of the Candler building. Colonel Van Orsdale officiated in the presentation of the officers and Major Waltz assisted General Duvall in receiving the guests.

The officers of the Seventeenth made a handsome appearance as they marched to the Candler building, their full dress uniforms adding a very cosmopolitan touch to metropolitan Atlanta. And while there was little to suggest active field service in the well set-up figures of these officers of the regular army, it is only a short time since they were in the Philippine islands, where the regiment served with distinction and added glory to the honor of American arms in many important campaigns. The reception was held in the morning, and was of short duration, only the formalities which are a part of military ethics being exchanged on this occasion.

BLOW IN HEAD DAZED JONES.

Fought Against Ambulance and Hospital Physicians—Later Permitted Doctors To Sew Wound.

A blow on the head so dazed and stupefied G. C. Jones, a switchman of the Central railroad, early yesterday morning that he rebelled against physicians and the ambulance.

Jones was riding on a switch engine and accidentally fell, striking on his head. He cut a gash across his forehead which bled profusely. The ambulance was sent for, but Jones refused to ride in it. The blood was in his face and eyes and he appeared to be more like a wild man than a rational being. He called the ambulance an undertaker's wagon and a hearse. His friends persuaded him to take the ride after a long parley.

At the hospital, Jones walked into the operating room and there flatly refused to allow the doctors to dress his wound. He was permitted to leave the hospital and walk to his home.

Later in the morning he became quiet and consented to return to the hospital and have the cut on his head stitched.

It is not thought he is seriously injured. His conduct at the time of the accident was due to his mental condition as a result of the blow on the head.

CLASS CHANGE FOR TWO ROADS?

G. S. & F. and A. & B. Summoned Before Commission.

Meeting Is Scheduled for Today and an Interesting Hearing Will Follow — Central, Southern and Coast Line Fighting Change of Class.

The Georgia railroad commission will meet today at which time some important and interesting cases are booked to come up for consideration.

The Georgia Southern and Florida and the Atlantic and Birmingham railroads are cited to appear at this time and show cause why their classification should not be changed which would result in material reductions in the local freight rates which they are now allowed to charge. The Georgia Southern and Florida is now in class C, where it is permitted to charge about 25 per cent in addition to the standard tariff while the Atlantic and Birmingham is in class D and is permitted to charge an additional 30 to 35 per cent. The proposition before the railroad commission is to inquire into the propriety of reducing those classifications so as to make a cut of about 10 per cent in the local rates on these lines.

This action was recently taken by the commission in the cases of the Central of Georgia, the Southern railway and the Atlantic Coast Line, but before the orders went into effect these roads secured injunctions against them in the United States court here and they propose, it is said, to fight them to the last ditch. They assert the reductions ordered by the commission practically amount to a confiscation of their property without due process of law which is forbidden under the constitution of the United States. Should the Georgia Southern and Florida and the Atlantic and Birmingham be similarly reduced, it may be they also will join in the fight in the courts.

Another matter which will come before the commission is the question of demurrage on lumber shipments at Brunswick, Savannah and other ports, the lumber men complaining that the time has been too greatly reduced by the railroads.

SAVED ANIMALS FROM FLAMES

Ewell Gay Forces Open Door of Barn Which was on Fire.

Ewell Gay, son of Captain Edward S. Gay, of 20 Currier street, tore an iron staple from a barn door yesterday morning shortly after 2 o'clock and saved a fine horse and three bird dogs from death in the fire. Mr. Gay was severely gashed in the head while opening the door.

The fire, which was believed to have been of an incendiary origin, was discovered by police officers and an alarm sent in. The family were quickly aroused, and Ewell Gay was soon in the yard, where he found that the barn was on fire. He knew there was a fine horse and three valuable dogs in the barn and unless they were at once liberated they would burn to death. He did not have time to look for an instrument with which to break the lock, so he broke off the staple with his hands and opened the door. The horse and the dogs ran out and were saved.

The guests in the Peachtree Inn, which is in the rear of Captain Gay's residence and fronting on Peachtree street, were aroused by the noise of the fire engines, and many of them left the hotel. The Inn was in no danger, however.

ORDER OF BLACK FEATHER IS NEGRO SECRET SOCIETY

THE police have discovered a new secret society among the negroes known as the "Order of the Black Feather." While finding out a good many things about the order, the officers have so far failed to discover the significance of the name, unless it means that its members will never show the "white feather."

For some months past policemen have noticed a large number of negroes wearing small black feathers, usually plucked from a chicken. The feathers were worn either on hats or pinned to the coat or shirtwaist. It was always conspicuous.

When asked what the black feather meant, and why it was worn, the negroes gave some evasive reply.

Last Saturday night Patrolmen Hardaway and Thompson were informed that a crowd of negro men and women were holding a strange sort of meeting under a tree in a vacant lot or field in Hobo Hollow. They went to the place designated and found about twenty men and women sitting in a circle with a lamp in their midst. One of the men was "swearing in" a negro girl, and they overheard him make use of words about as follows:

"You solemnly swear that you will be true to the black feather and whenever you see a brother or sister who wears the feather in trouble, you will help him or her out if it takes your last cent of money or costs you your life, so help you God."

The officers remained in hiding long enough to see the girl given a feather, when they broke into the conclave. About half of those present forgot all about the significance of the black feather, for they ran and escaped.

The officers arrested Bessie Barrier, Lucile Weaver, Lillie Barrier, Babe Trimble, Nervie Webb, Ida Frederick, Will Simmons and Allen Johnson. The crowd was arraigned in the recorder's coure yesterday afternoon but not one of them could be induced to tell about the "Order of the Black Feather." They were fined $1.75 each and warned to disband.

HOLLIS-RICE WEDDING PRETTY EVENT OF TODAY

AMERICUS, GA., April 10.—(Special.)—The wedding of Mr. Grantland Rice, of Cleveland, Ohio, formerly of Atlanta, and Miss Florence Davenport Hollis, of Americus, which will occur tomorrow, will be an event of wide interest.

There are probably not two more popular young people in Georgia than the contracting parties. Mr. Grantland Rice has attained a national reputation as a writer on sporting topics, and is now in charge of the sporting news department of The Cleveland (Ohio) News. Miss Hollis is one of the handsomest young women in Georgia, and has made a distinct social success in Atlanta and wherever she has visited. Her family is a prominent one in southwest Georgia.

Mr. Rice first won notice as sporting editor of The Nashville News. Next he was associated with The Atlanta Journal, where his work on the sporting page won for him wide recognition as an authority on sports. He is now in Cleveland and the young couple will make that city their home.

The wedding ceremony will occur at the First Methodist church, and Rev. J. P. Wardlaw will officiate. The attendants will be Misses Annie Fitten and Sadie Morris, of Atlanta; Miss Irene Hand, of Pelham, and Miss Emma Dunbar, of Augusta. Miss Elizabeth Hollis, of Americus, will be maid of honor. The bride will be given away by Hon. J. L. Hand, of Pelham.

After the ceremony the bridal party will be entertained at an elaborate and beautiful reception at the residence of Mrs. Florence Hollis, the bride's mother.

A large party of Atlanta people came down for the wedding and are the house party guests of Mr. John Wheatley. The number includes Misses Josie and Harrie Stockdell, Miss Mary Thomas, Miss Eugenia Oglesby, Miss May duBignon, Mr. Rob Keely, Mr. Verstile Glenn and Mr. Logan Clark.

To Miss Angier.

MISS HARRIET LOYLESS' bridge party for Miss Marie Angier will be a delightful event of Tuesday morning, and the guests will be: Misses Josie Lee Williford, Rosalind Davis of Macon, Minnie Van Epps, Lalla Clark of New York, Pauline Lewis, Pauline Hope, Cora Hemphill, Mrs. Paul Dobbins, Mrs. E. F. Malone, Misses Harriet Lee Angier, Alice May Rushton, Mrs. A. W. Malone, Mrs. Francis Kamper, Misses Kate Waldo, Marion Jackson, May Ragland, Louise Catching, Mrs. Harry Perkerson and Miss Julia Bellingrath.

To Miss Tremere.

MISS EDITH AMSDEN will entertain informally at luncheon Monday in compliment to Miss Frances Tremere, whose marriage to Mr. T. G. Woolford takes place Wednesday. The party will number six.

To Mrs. Landon.

MR. AND MRS. E. C. CALLAWAY entertained informally at dinner last night in compliment to Mrs. Landon, of Winona, Minn., who is visiting Judge and Mrs. T. P. Westmoreland. The table was prettily appointed in pink carnations forming the centerpiece, and the party included Mrs. Landon, Judge and Mrs. Westmoreland, Mr. and Mrs Alex Smith and Miss Hooper.

Wedding Reception.

MR. AND MRS. JACOB PATTERSON will entertain at a reception in compliment to their niece, Miss Frances Tremere, and Mr. T. G. Woolford, after their wedding on Wednesday afternoon.

Theatre Party.

MR. AND MRS. H. C. STOCKDELL will give a theater party tonight at the Viola Allen performance in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. George P. Sheldon and Mr. Charles F. Koster, of New York, and Mr. Joseph H. Lenehan, of Chicago. The other guests will be Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Waldo, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Stockdell, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stockdell and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Redding.

Mr. Winburn's March.

MR. HOWARD A. WINBURN is again in the public eye as the composer of a march and two-step, entitled "The Minute Man," which has just been published. His march, "St. Elmo," enjoyed a lasting vogue and placed him well to the front among present day composers, and his songs are well known, while his latest work is destined to add still more favorably to his reputation.

Mr. Winburn has a wide acquaintance on his own account and on account of his music, and a popular interest is being expressed in "The Minute Man."

To Visitors.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES DAX, of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. A. G. McIlwaine, of Hartford, Conn., were entertained informally last night by Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Hancock, and tonight they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Reynolds.

Julia Jackson Chapter.

THE Children of the Confederacy, Julia Jackson chapter, will hold their regular meeting at Mrs. Owens Johnson's, 106 Forrest avenue, Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Each member is requested to respond to the roll call with an incident of the civil war. A large attendance is requested, as business of importance must come before the chapter.

History Class.

THE Nineteenth Century History class will meet this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock with Mrs. F. H. Orme, No. 70 North Forsyth street. The election of officers for the ensuing year will take place.

Circus Party.

ENJOYABLE among the entertainments in honor of Miss Clara Belle Wilson and Mr. James Dougherty was a circus party given by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lumpkin, a party of twelve enjoying their hospitality.

To Miss Lynch.

MISS KATHERINE MURPHY will entertain at cards on Saturday afternoon of next week in compliment to Miss Josephine Lynch, whose marriage to Mr. Butler, of Savannah, takes place on the 25th.

Card Party.

MISS NELLIE FAGAN will entertain at cards on Wednesday afternoon of next week in compliment to Miss Josephine Lynch.

Miss Hallman's Party.

MISS IDOLENE AUSTELL AND MISS IDA HIGHTOWER were the lovely guests of honor at the bridge party given yesterday afternoon by Miss Ruth Hallman, when she entertained thirty-two guests.

The first prize, a silver picture frame, was won by Miss Ethel Mobley, and the second, a silver smelling bottle, was won by Miss Hattie Orr.

At the conclusion of the game the charming hostess presided at the daintiest of luncheons, among her guests being Mrs. Albert Thornton, Mrs. George Cannon, Mrs. James W. English, Jr., Mrs. Harry Stearns, Mrs. Harry English, Mrs. William Montgomery, Mrs. Edward English, Mrs. Thomas B. Paine, Mrs. James D. McKeldin, Mrs. Evelyn Harris, Mrs. William H. Kiser, Mrs. Milt Saul, Misses Nellie Hightower, Sara and Marion Peel, Emma Belle DuBose, Ethel Mobley, Mary Deas Tupper, Nellie Howell, Janie Speer, Julia Porter, Mary Read, Nanny and Mary Nicolson, Isma Dooly, Janie Thornton, Kittie Thornton and others.

Miss Austell's flowerlike beauty was seen to charming advantage in a French gown of coral colored chiffon, cloth, trimmed in narrow plaitings of silk the same color and Irish lace. Her hat of black braid was trimmed in white plumes.

Miss Ida Hightower was a picture of girlish beauty, wearing pale pink messeline silk and lace. Her hat of white straw was trimmed in pink crush roses.

Mrs. James W. English, Jr., was the center of admiration in a silk gown of forget-me-not blue, showing a tiny figure in white. The skirt was gracefully fashioned and finished with folds of the silk. The corsage was slightly bloused and had a square yoke of white lisse set in with bands of Cluny lace and a narrow piping of black and white checked silk. Sprays of the Cluny lace further ornamented the corsage, its sleeves full and to the elbow. The ceinture giving finish, had a Frenchy touch given in a fold of the black and while silk. Her hat of white lace was trimmed in clusters of moss roses and forget-me-nots.

Miss Marion Peel wore a cloth gown in the popular shade of amber, the corsage trimmed in lace, her picture hat in black was trimmed in plumes. Miss Hattie May High wore a princesse gown in Alice blue silk.

Miss Janie Speer wore a princesse gown in coral colored chiffon. Her hat of coral colored straw was trimmed in reseda green plumes and foliage.

Mrs. Harry English wore a smart tailor gown of pongee silk in its natural shade. Her hat of black was trimmed in white paradise aigrettes.

Mrs. Thomas B. Paine wore a tailor gown in ivory colored cloth, the coat finished with a touch of Alice blue. Her hat of Milan straw was trimmed in roses.

Mrs. James McKeldin wore an afternoon toilet of dark blue voile, with effective trimmings in lace. Mrs. Edward English wore with a skirt of black and white checked wool a jaunty coat in black cloth, and her becoming hat in black.

Surprise Party.

MRS. HERBERT TANNER was given a delightful surprise party yesterday afternoon to celebrate her birthday. Her daughter, Miss Edith Tanner, arranged the affair, a thoroughly informal one, inviting fourteen ladies to call at 4 o'clock for a congenial cup of tea, and the occasion proved most enjoyable.

The ladies calling were: Mrs. C. C. Fleming, Mrs. Charles Lippold, Mrs. Hobbs, Mrs. Turner, of Marietta; Miss Guerard, Mrs. Gresher, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. H. C. Mitchell, Mrs. Dalton Mitchell, Mrs. E. C. Davis, Mrs. Malcolus, Mrs. George Mason, Mrs. Harlan, Mrs. Lyons, of Fort McPherson.

At Fort McPherson.

AN enjoyable event at Fort McPherson last night was an informal hop, at which the officers entertained, a number of guests from town enjoying with society at the post a delightful evening.

Mrs. Hawkins' Party.

MRS. W. E. HAWKINS entertained delightfully at cards yesterday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. Charles Dox, of Chicago, and Mrs. A. G. McIlwaine, of Hartford, Conn.

Pink and white roses decorated the house artistically, and the game was followed by a delightful luncheon. The first prize, a pair of silk stockings, was won by Mrs. Charles Dox, and the consolation, a turquoise bracelet, by Mrs. W. I. Callaway.

Mrs. Hawkins' reception gown was a becoming one of white silk voile and lace. Mrs. Dox wore pastel blue cloth, and Irish lace with a white plummed lace hat. Mrs. McIlwaine was gowned in blue chiffon taffeta and cream lace, and her Tuscan straw hat was trimmed with black and white plumes.

BEAUTIFUL SELECTION OF NEW ROSARIES FOR EASTER.

A GOOD PONY SHOW HERE.

A Few Reasons Why Seibel Bros. Have One of the Best in the Country.

To attend a performance of Seibel Bros. Dog and Pony shows, exhibiting this week on the Jackson street grounds, is to realize that animal training has really become an art, and to many who have attended previous exhibitions of trained animals in Atlanta, the performance presented by Seibel Bros. is a revelation.

The start and subsequent career of these young showmen shows what brains and determination can accomplish in America, especially when coupled with that great necessity—natural aptitude. The show business is an industry in itself, and good showmen, like great musicians, are born, not made. Competition, rivalry and opposition are the three great factors to contend with and watch closely, and the showman with a clear foresight, a cool head and good judgment, with a keen insight as to the wishes and demands of the public, is the one who clips coupons and keeps tab on a fat bank account. When Seibel Bros. first went into the show business they had their troubles, and plenty of them. This was three years ago, and the fact that they have succeeded even beyond their own expectations is somewhat puzzling to everybody in the business except to Seibel Bros. themselves. They give the secret away, according to the press agent, for the benefit of the public first and "old showmen secondly." Seeing the need of a new show, and feeling that a performance consisting of entirely new features, something that would astonish, interest and instruct everybody, and getting entirely away from the usual acts seen with the ordinary dog and pony show—acts which have been seen since the dog and pony show was in its infancy—they launched their enterprise, first securing the finest stock that money could buy, and in addition to entering the training barn themselves, engaging the services of the foremost trainer and ringmaster in the world, Perre Pitrot.

Backed by the qualities which go to make successful showmen, Seibel Bros. sallied forth with the result that after their first performance in a city, each succeeding one has been attended by more people than the tent would hold. For years the dog and pony show has been a thing of child's delight, and something new in the four-footed fun-making line is by no means remiss. Seibel Bros. are therefore welcomed with more than usual interest, as something new in the amusement line doesn't happen any too frequently nowadays.

Not alone is the ring performance a top notcher, but the "animal actors" giving it are marvels, for beauty, intelligence and obedience. Among the ponies is little "Snow Cloud," the smallest full-grown thoroughbred Shetland pony in the world. Kokomo, said to be the nearest approach to man which the ape world has produced, is the greatest of the monkeys, and Scout, the wonderful tramp dog, takes the center of the stage as the bright particular star of the canine contingent.

TOWBOAT DRIFTS DOWN RIVER

The Joseph Williams Loses Number of Barges.

Hickman, Ky., April 10.—The towboat Joseph Williams, with a tow of coal, lost her rudder and became untrollable while passing Hickman today. She struck the current wrong and with a tremendous crash her fleet divided. A number of barges were sunk opposite town. She is drifting helpless down the river and help was telegraphed for from Cairo.

BEN JONES' CAR TAKES THE CUP

Atlantic Beach, Fla., April 10.—(Special.)—Hon. Ben L. Jones' automobile, Choctaw, covered itself and owner with glory this afternoon in the opening races on the beach and won the Georgia-Florida championship. The race was one mile, the best two out of three heats.

The Choctaw, which was driven by C. O. Summers, of Barnesville, won the first two heats, and as a result Mr. Jones will bring back to Macon a handsome cup. The car which represent Florida was an imported Panhard and made a fine record in the famous Paris Bordeau road race.

Tomorrow the Choctaw will be entered in several other races and Mr. Jones is confident of bringing other trophies back to Macon.

Beer Is a Food of High Quality

It Refreshes and Strengthens the Body With Predigested Nourishment.

Many people unable to take solid food have been built up by Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer. And it is just as good for the well as for the sick. Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer with your meals tones up the whole system. Taken in moderation it cannot have other than helpful, up-building, strengthening effect, free from false stimulation.

Purity and cleanness are essential for healthful beer, just as they are essential for any other healthful food. And purity and cleanness are watchwords in the great Pabst brewery at Milwaukee. Only the finest of malt and hops are used, and the whole Pabst process is a revelation of scientific progress, the result of sixty years' pursuit of all the best known methods in the science of brewing. A most important feature of the Pabst Brewing process is the Pabst method of making malt. It requires eight days and doubles the expense of the old four-day method, still used in many breweries, but the eight-day Pabst process is the only process by which perfect malt can be made. Absolute cleanliness distinguishes the entire Pabst process, and the Pabst Blue Ribbon label is a guarantee of purity. The name Pabst always stands for purity, cleanliness and the best beer brewed.

If your food doesn't taste just right, or if your digestion is a little "off," or your appetite is poor, try Pabst Blue Ribbon beer for a few days and find for yourself that it is good food. ***

REGULARS SHOW SPLENDID FORM

Second Team Doesn't Get Look in at Last Practice.

Atlanta Machine Shows Up Faster and More Aggressive Than in Any Regular Game of the Season.

From the moment the Regulars and the Volunteers pranced out upon the field of baseball battle yesterday afternoon, the fans in attendance were certain of the final result, but the work of the Regulars was faster and more aggressive than they expected.

Regulars 12, Volunteers 5.

The score does not give any indication of the relative merits of the two teams, for after Baxter Sparks had subdued the opposing batters for five innings without a hit or a man reaching first base, Zeller was substituted, and merely lobbed the ball over in order to give the fielders strenuous exercise.

Atlanta lined up with Fox on first, Jordan on second, Morse at short, and Hoffman at third base, while the infield line up of the Volunteers consisted of Archer at first, Sid Smith at second, Utley at short, and Harley at third.

There was no kicking on the decisions of the umpire. Whatever he said went, the players bowing their heads in submission, for Billy Smith was doing the officiating on the occasion.

No detailed account of the game can give a more accurate description of the way the runs were made than the mere statement that about as soon as one man reached first or second on a hit, another drive was sent in its wake to complete the home trip.

Both teams cut loose in the sixth inning, and for awhile it looked as if there would be no end to the scoring. Twelve batters faced Shaffer, the Volunteer pitcher, and during that time nine hits were made, the majority of them being for clean two-base drives. Faster work out in right, where Childs was playing, might have cut off several balls that went safe, but the majority of them were not reachable.

The Volunteers had their inning in the sixth, eight of them facing Zeller, George Stinson driving in their first run when he doubled to center field, scoring Shaffer.

The showing of the Regulars was superb, both in fielding and in batting. Shaffer was pitching fair ball, but the way the Regulars connected, bodes ill for Montgomery today.

The infield and the outfield were moving faster than ever before this season. Crozier was out in left, taking in every thing in sight as is usual with him. In center field Curtis made one of the prettiest stabs of the afternoon, while Jordan excelled himself in gathering in all kinds of grounders around second base. Hoffman moved over the ground like a flash, and the way he got the ball over to first proved that his arm is in good shape for the opening of the season.

MERCER TEAM TAKES BRACE

Macon, Ga., April 10.—(Special.)—The uncertainty of baseball was well illustrated this afternoon, when Mercer, after losing four straight games, defeated Trinity by the score of 5 to 3.

The visitors were dazed by the unexpected treatment handed out to them by the supposedly weak Baptists aggregation. Mercer made a number of bad errors, but the fielders atoned for their misplays by star work at critical moments.

Clement, who held Tech down to a single hit, and that a scratch, last Friday afternoon, and Gantt, another reliable twirler, were tried out by the visitors, while Smith was in good form for Mercer, and kept hits scattered. The Mercer pitcher was a complete puzzle to the Tarheels.

The two North Carolina pitchers walked seven men, while Smith passed four down to first. Smith fanned seven players, Clement four and Gantt six.

The Mercerians made five hits and five errors, while the best that Trinity could do was a total of four hits and two errors.

Both in batting and in fielding, Mercer showed remarkably improved form. Coach Hyatt was delighted with the work of his team, and believes that they are just getting into stride.

LEAGUE SEASON IS OPENED TODAY

Montgomery Team Will Play Atlanta at Piedmont.

"Bugs" Raymond Will Work Out in the Box With Archer Behind the Bat—Local Players Are in Fine Condition.

With Bugs Raymond in the box and Archer behind the bat, the Atlanta baseball team of 1906 will open the Southern League season at Piedmont park this afternoon, playing the Montgomery club, headed by Ike Durrett.

For weeks the baseball fans have been looking forward to April 11, scratching off the interveing days, even as a school girl eliminates time separating her from her vacation.

Grandmother has been very sick for the past few days, and the office boys of the city are growing alarmed on account of her very serious condition. Meningitis or pneumonia is equally effective in this case.

Each successive season has found baseball more firmly entrenched in the hearts of the Atlanta baseball fans, and the opening day has always found a large outpouring of eager and sympathetic mortals, anxious for the success of their representatives.

Owing to the splendid showing of the Atlanta team against the big leaguers, the nifty work of the men in practice games and the confidence of the fans in Billy Smith, the crowd this afternoon is expected to eclipse in size that of any other opening day in recent years.

Atlanta is going in with a vim, a snap and a determination to win which will not brook denial of her hopes. The men are in first-class condition and are dead anxious for the tap of the bell which sends the men out on the field and drags from the mouth of the umpire the gladsome words, "Play ball."

There will be no parade of the players through the streets as there has been in days past. Just to whoop them up a trifle a big brass band will find seats in a street car this morning and let loose stirring strains.

In the afternoon a brass band will dispense music to the fans at Piedmont park and make all the noise possible, to add to the roaring of the fans when Atlanta's runs begin to cross the plate.

"I have not the least doubt as to the result of the game tomorrow afternoon," said Billy Smith yesterday, "for we are in such fine shape that if we don't win I want to know the reason why.

"All my men are fit for the tap of the bell. They have been playing jam up ball for some time, and are now ready to give the benefit of their knowledge to Montgomery. Three out of four at least is my intention."

"If I don't win that game tomorrow," said Bugs Raymond yesterday, "then I will jump over that back fence and Piedmont park will see me no more."

The game will start at 3:30 o'clock. Umpire Buckley, of Rochester, will officiate.

Billy Smith has decided his line-up. Hoffman will lead off and play third base; Crozier next, in centerfield; Curtis in center; Morse at short; Winters in right; Jordan at second; Fox at first; Archer behind the bat, and Raymond in the box.

JUDGE OF PLAY REACHES CITY

Umpire W. J. Buckley is Favorably Impressed With Atlanta.

Outside the confines of Piedmont park into the company of the boys who wait the coming of a foul for admission into the gates is the fate awaiting kickers and beefers this afternoon.

For yesterday afternoon W. J. Buckley, youngest umpire in the business, arrived in Atlanta, sought out Billy Smith, gave him the glad paw and announced that he was ready for business.

The 23-year-old judge of play wants to officiate at a pink tea party this afternoon, but if a rough house is scheduled in its place he is ready for the issue.

Last night he stated that he intended to stand no foolishness from the players, but would give both clubs a fair deal and expects the same kind of treatment from the players.

Buckley comes from Rochester, N. Y., the home of Silk O'Loughlin, Billy Carpenter and a number of other well-known umpires.

Last year he umpired in the New York State League and held his own. It goes as an axiom in baseball, it is said, that anyone able to hold up his own end in the New York State League can do the same in any other league under the American sun.

Buckley had umpired college games and independent team games for several years before his work was noticed by President Farrell, of the New York State League. Last season he was given a chance, first as a sub and then as a regular, serving acceptably in both positions.

This year he was recommended to Kavanaugh by Billy Carpenter and President Farrell. He is young, modest looking and would not be picked out as an umpire should you meet him walking down the street.

On Easter Sunday

You will see a great many stylishly dressed men, hundreds and hundreds that you will agree are wearing the swellest up-to-date tailor made goods, when, in fact, a great many of those very suits will be from the magnificent line we are showing this week.

A few men spend much time in the selection of a suit; they examine carefully the workmanship, the style, the quality; and then compare the price. Well, now, this is just the class that we never fail to sell. We are actually selling the very best material, the latest styles and the best custom workmanship to be had in the country, and we are doing it something like this:

Men's $5.00 Suits for only $3.00

Men's $12.50 Suits for only $8.50

Men's $15.00 Suits for only $10.00

Men's $25.00 Suits for only $18.00

Don't think for a moment that these prices indicate cheap stuff, for it is not the case. We will leave it to every man that is familiar with the best grade of clothing, and he will pronounce our line one of the best, involving many individual meritorious features. Don't fail to bring the little fellows along. We can amaze you with quality and price.

Next Sunday Is Easter

Better look through our line before placing an order, possibly you may save money.

TWO STAR EVENTS RUN AT BENNINGS

Washington, April 10.—At Benning today two features were offered—the southern steeplechase, a pink coat handicap for hunters qualified under the rules of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association—and the Amateur cup, a high weight selling race for 3-year-olds and upwards at 40 pounds above the scale. The former was the notable attraction and proved to be the best running of the race ever witnessed. The riders are all experienced followers of the hounds and handled their mounts admirably. Gamecock, with L. Evans up, was the favorite, and Oleroso, with Mr. Smith in the saddle, was a strong second choice. Oleroso, until the last 100 yards, seemed a certain winner, but with a fine ride, Mr. Evans managed to win by a nose. The track was soft and the going heavy.

FIRST RACE—Six and a half furlongs: The Clown, 94 (Miller), 7 to 10, won; Waddell II, 108 (Christian), 100 to 1, second; Loricate, 115 (Helgerson), 60 to 1, third. Time, 1:25. Blue Coat, Bellsnicker and Warning ran.

SECOND RACE—Four furlongs: Woodline, 104 (Treubel), 6 to 1, won; Windfall, 104 (Robbins), 20 to 1, second; Wabash Queen, 104 (Mooney), 20 to 1, third. Time, .52. Fond Du Lac, Lady Vincent, L'Orpheline, Cora Price, Merry Lassie, Eminola, Alegra, Workmaid, Mode and Belle of Oakley ran.

THIRD RACE—Four and a half furlongs: The Wrestler, 107 (Robbins), 9 to 5, won; Tibeling, 107 (Morris), 8 to 5 second; Encore, 107 (Knapp), 6 to 1, third. Time, 59. Lord Pipe, Tudor, Black Knight and Mount O'Donnell ran.

FOURTH RACE—Southern steeplechase, about 2 1-2 miles: Gamecock, 168 (Evans), 7 to 10, won; Oleroso, 135 (Smith), 9 to 5, second; Iron Heart, 142 (Devereaux), 12 to 1, third. Time, 5:36. My Grace fell.

FIFTH RACE—Amateur cup, 6 furlongs: Paprika, 133 (Tucker), 6 to 1, won; Paeon, 136 (Nichols), 5 to 2, second; Castor, 150 (Kerr), 9 to 5, third. Time, 1:21 2-5. Monadnock, The Mond, Trapezist and Sir Brinkley ran.

SIXTH RACE—Mile and one hundred yards: Phoebus, 106 (Robbins), 20 to 1, won; Grand Duchess, 101 (T. Burns), 2 to 1, second; Setauket, 110 (Miller), 11 to 5, third. Time, 1:54 3-5. Proceeds, Zany, Water Course and Henry Waring ran.

Bennings Entries for Today.

First Race—Five furlongs: Twister, 104; Clover, Cropt, Ligero, Hanover, Hornpipe, 103; Radical, High Brush, 94; Water Way, Contentment, 109; Elkton Weaver, Oriflame, Donna, Fishhook, Fighting Girl, Julia Rothschild, 89.

Second Race—Four and one-half furlongs: Josie S., 106; Bathmarea, Mocassin, Strong Arm, 99; Cora Price, Shakle, Ransom, 94.

Third Race—Six and a half furlongs: Gentian, 106; Water Dog, 103; Society Bud, Hocus Pocus, Daruma, 101; Riggs, 96.

Fourth Race—Seven furlongs: Echodale, Fiat, Monadnock, Pirateer, Amber Jack, Cannonball, Bobbie Kean, Parkville, 100, John F. Ahearn, Peter Paul, 97; Noblesse Oblige, Delphia, 96.

Fifth Race—Seven furlongs: Sais, Pirateer, 108; Northville, Mettle, 103; Suffice, Nonsense, 101; Scarecrow, 98; Judge White, 95; Vanguard, 94; Edict, 93; Society Bud, 90.

Sixth Race—Mile and one hundred yards: Duke of Kendal, 122; Bill Curtis, 114; Peter Paul, 107; Northville, 105; Winchester, 102; Water Dog, 100; Phoebus, 90.

HOWARD AND ADAMSON INVITED TO OREGON

Georgia Congressmen Wanted to Take Part in Campaign for House Members in Far Western State.

By Jos: Ohl.

Washington, April 10.—(Special.)—In making its arrangements for a vigorous campaign in Oregon the democratic congressional campaign committee has asked Congressman Howard, of the eighth district, and Congressman Adamson, of the fourth district, to make a number of speeches in that state.

Oregon is the one state of the union that holds its congressional elections in the summer. While all the others elect in the autumn, Oregon clings to her habit of electing in June. The outlook out there this year is said to be more promising for democracy owing to the great demoralization of the republican party over the troubles into which its representatives in congress and some other officials have gotten.

Of the two senators and two representatives but one republican, Senator Fulton, has escaped indictment as the result of prosecution by the officials of the federal courts. Senator Mithchell died while his case was pending upon appeal in the supreme court, he having been convicted. Representatives Herrmann and Williamson both have indictments or prosecutions of some sort and at some stage hanging over them.

Senator Gearin's Strength.

Senator Gearin, who was appointed to fill the vacancy created by the death of Senator Mitchell, is a democrat and a man of very high standing as a lawyer and publicist. The appointment of such a man has greatly strengthened the democratic party of the state. Both Senator Gearin and Governor Chamberlain believe the outlook is excellent for carrying the legislature—which would insure the election of Senator Gearin—and one of the congressional districts if the right sort of a contest is made.

In casting out for speakers who he believes will do most effective work in his state Senator Gearin has asked for the two Georgians mentioned. Both Mr. Howard and Mr. Adamson enjoy the confidence and esteem of their party associates in a high degree and it is generally hoped they will be able to respond to the invitation extended to them, as a democratic victory in Oregon such as Senator Gearin hopes for would be of very great value to the party in the contests to come on later in the country at large.

Circuit Court of Appeals.

Senator Bacon has secured the passage by the senate of the bill introduced by Representative Brantley regulating the practice in carrying up appeals from the United States courts where there has been an injunction or the appointment of a receiver. This measure is of particular interest to lawyers and is aimed to correct certain abuses which have grown up under the law as it has stood.

Under the law as it stood, Senator Bacon explained, a peculiar condition of affairs has existed. The law has had a limitation which the Brantley bill is aimed to cure. As it has been, whenever a case involved or was alleged by the pleader to involve, a constitutional question, there was no possibility of any review of an interlocutory decree.

"It cannot," explained Senator Bacon, "go to the circuit court of appeals, because the present law does not permit it to go there. It cannot go to the supreme court of the United States, because under no circumstances does an interlocutory decree go by appeal to the supreme court of the United States. The effect is that whenever there is an application for the appointment of a receiver, if the complainant does not desire that the action of the circuit court shall be reviewed in that matter, all he has to do is to allege some constitutional ground, whether it is true in fact or not, and a mere allegation of it operates to prevent any review of the interlocutory order or decree. It is a fact which is stated by the judges of the courts that that is frequently taken advantage of by pleaders for the purpose of preventing the review of the decision of a court appointing a receiver or granting an injunction by an interlocutory decree.

"The only effect of the bill is to take out from the present law the words which I will read. It is an exact reenactment of the law as it now stands, except that it takes out the words which I now read:

"'In a cause in which an appeal from a final decree may be taken under the provisions of this act to the circuit court of appeals.'"

Senator Bacon introduced some time ago a bill exactly similar to that of Mr. Brantley and secured a favorable report from the judiciary committee. Mr. Brantley's bill having passed the house, he had it substituted for his own bill upon the calendar and passed.

Griggs Secures Pardon.

Judge Griggs has secured the pardon of Charles McGill, of Pelham, Mitchell county, a soldier in the regular army, under a year's sentence for some infraction of the army regulations. McGill is imprisoned at Fort Leavenworth. Judge Griggs, who is well acquainted with McGill's relatives, who are prominent people in Mitchell county, after having made an investigation into the case, presented his reasons for a pardon to President Roosevelt and has just been notified that his request had been granted.

Adamson Declines Invitation.

Judge Adamson has been compelled to decline a flattering invitation to address the board of trade of New Bedford, Mass.

A committee from New Bedford came on to Washington to extend a formal invitation to the Georgian to make a cotton address upon the occasion of the annual meeting and banquet of the board of trade, but on account of the pressure of business Judge Adamson felt compelled to decline.

ELECTRIC LINE TO ATLANTA.

Jaquish Going Over Line of Proposed New Road.

Gainesville, Ga., April 10.—(Special.)—H. D. Jaquish, who is at the head of the proposed electric railroad to run from Gainesville to Atlanta, spent last week going over the proposed route with other interested parties. It will soon be determined, says Mr. Jaquish, whether or not the road will be built. Ample capital is back of the project, if it is found to be a feasible proposition. Mr. Jaquish will return to New York in a few weeks to again confer with the promoters of the enterprise. It is to be hoped that the road will be built so that Gainesville people can be "swished" to Atlanta by trolley in a little while.

To Postpone Hague Conference.

Washington, April 10.—The French ambassador here has been informed that the French foreign office has sent a dispatch to St. Petersburg saying the French government would consider it a great favor if Russia would lend its influence to have the date of the second Hague conference postponed acording to the wishes of the American government. Senor Nabuco, the Brazilian ambassador, today received a cabugram from his government stating that the Dutch and Belgian governments had informed the Brazilian minister in Belgium that their governments had no objection to the postponement of the conference.

Committee on National Battle Grounds Gets Down to Work.

Organization was effected yesterday afternoon by representatives of the city and county government and the leading camps of veterans in Atlanta advocating the purchase by the federal government of the three battle grounds near Atlanta and the establishment of a chain of national parks.

Those who attended the meeting were E. W. Martin, chairman; E. C. Peters, J. W. Grant, E. P. Ansley, W. H. Terrell, F. A. Hilburn, S. A. Darnell, R. M. Clayton, W. G. Cooper, D. Woodward, W. L. Calhoun and L. P. Thomas.

The following were appointed on a committee to draft the bill, with its amendments, to be presented to congress through Representative Livingston: E. W. Martin, chairman; W. H. Terrell, James L. Mayson, S. A. Darnell, R. M. Clayton and W. G. Cooper.

It was announced that "Corporal" Tanner, commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, will be in the city Thursday and will make a thorough inspection of the three battle fields. He and the escort will make the trips in automobiles.

Thursday evening a reception will be given in honor of "Corporal" and Mrs. Tanner by Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Carson.

OTIS BROWN, A NEGRO, WHO work for Fielder & Allen, was arraigned in the recorder's court on the charge of being drunk and for cursing two Greeks on Decatur street. He begged the recorder for a light fine, stating that his wife was ill at home with pneumonia. The fine was made $5. In a few minutes a large, healthy looking negro woman walked into the court room and said she was Brown's wife and wanted to pay his fine. The recorder recalled Brown, showed him the woman and said: "This is your sick wife. I will make your fine $10 for telling me such a lie."

C. W. MORGAN, KNOWN BY MANY of his friends as Walter Morgan, a long time employee of the Western and Atlantic railroad, who has been quite ill at the home of his aunt, Mrs. G. T. Lucas, on Fraser street, near Clark, for a month past, was upon the streets yesterday afternoon for a few hours meeting many of his old friends.

MISS WILHELMINA DRUMMOND, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Drummond, who has been desperately ill for a month or more past at the Leland House, where Mr. Drummond resides, is convalescing satisfactorily. Unless there is a relapse within the next few days the indications are that Miss Drummond will be well enough within a week or ten days to receive a few of her friends for a short time.

LETTERS FROM HOT SPRINGS PEceived yesterday by personal friends show that Al Marshall, widely known in Atlanta, is improving. When Mr. Marshall reached the springs some two weeks ago, he was unable to move about, his condition requiring constant medical attention. For a few days after Mr. Marshall reached the springs Mrs. Marshall and his attendants were decidedly apprehensive. But after a complete rest of a few days he began showing signs of improvement which have continued almost without interruption.

COLONEL P. H. BREWSTER WAS so much improved in his condition yesterday that he was able to stop for a for a few minutes his afternoon peiesirian exercise upon his spacious lawn to converse briefly over the phone with friends in Atlanta. "I'm feeling quite fit," he said. "In fact, I'm about as good and almost as strong as ever before that little mishap at the College Park station a few weeks ago, a mishap in which a street car gave me a vigorous and pronounced morning greeting. I hope, by the way, to be in the city before the end of the week to shake hands with the many friends who have been kind enough to show an interest in my condition since that morning." Colonel Brewster will be given a warm, genuine welcome by the Atlantans who have been watching closely every day the bulletins from his home in which every change in his condition was shown.

THE OLD HOME ON MITCHELL street, between Pryor and Central avenue, which was practically demolished by the caving of the foundation a month ago, and from which Captain Bunford, by heroic work saved the lives of Mrs. Stouch, wife of Tommy Stouch, the widely known baseball player, and her children, as well as other residents, as the outer walls were falling away, is assuming its old shape under the hands of the building contractors and will be ready for occupancy again within a few weeks.

A FRIGHTENED MULE, DRAWING a dray, got beyond the control of his driver yesterday afternoon on Alabama street, at Whitehall, and dashed into a moving street car. The force of the collision was sufficient to knock the mule flat and but for the quick work of the motorman in stopping the car that mule might have lost a leg or two. As it was, the quadruped with long ears was badly hurt.

A VERDICT WAS FOUND YESTERday afternoon by the jury in the case of Mrs. Maud Smith against the Southern Railway Company, who was suing on account of the killing on the railroad of her husband. A verdict of $5,000 for the plaintiff was found.

IT IS EXPECTED THAT JUDGE Roan, of Atlanta, and Judge Charles Brand, of Athens, will exchange places with one another for one week each in the next month. It is probable that Judge Brand will preside over the criminal division of the superior court here during the week of April 23 and that Judge Roan will be in Athens the following week.

PETITION FOR A CHARTER FOR the Atlanta Fruit and Produce Exchange was filed yesterday by J. J. Barnes and twenty-three others. The purpose of the proposed company is to secure and distribute commercial intelligence among the members of the company, etc.

W. J. BALDWIN WAS BOUND OVER by the superior court by Justice of the Peace Orr yesterday afternoon on the charge of forgery. It is claimed by L. P. Weathers, who is prosecuting the case, that the defandant forged five checks on the Neal bank, aggregating $90. It is said that the signatures on these checks, if they were forged, are remarkably well done. Baldwin met bond for $500.

TWO SUITS WERE FILED IN THE superior court against the Southern railway on account of the killing on March 5 of 8-year-old Mathew T. Jones, and the injuring of his sister, Gurner Jones, for which the railway company is held liable by the petitioners. The children, it is stated in the petition, were crossing the railroad tracks at McDaniel street, and while they were watching an engine and another engine and a string of cars backing out from Atlanta, a northbound train struck them. The boy was instantly killed and the girl sustained injuries. Damages of $10,000 are asked for the death of the boy, and $2,000 on account of certain injuries the girl is claimed to have received. The train which struck the children, it is claimed, was going at an excessive rate of speed.

REVIVAL SERVICES WILL BE BEgun tonight at the Capitol Avenue Baptist church. Will D. Upshaw will preach tonight and the Rev. Mr. Sommers, of Decatur, will preach tomorrow night. Dr. B. B. Bailey, of Shelbyville, Ky., will come Monday to assist the pastor in the services.

A MEETING OF THE SPECIAL COMmittee of twenty-five appointed to raise subscriptions for the 1910 exposition has been called for 3:30 o'clock this afternoon by Chairman R. F. Maddox, for the purpose of devising ways and means of securing subscriptions. All members of the committee are urged to attend.

DR. ROBERT J. MASSEY, WELL known to the readers of The Atlanta Constitution, and other publications throughout the south, who had a violent attack of acute indigestion Saturday night, is convalescing rapidly. He was well enough yesterday to leave his room and to pass a few fours upon his front piazza and to enjoy a short walk about his lawn during the afternoon. The many telephone inquiries and the number of notes and letters received at his home since his illness was announced, attests the popularity of the entertaining essayist and shows the widespread interest in his condition. Dr. Massey may be able to be upon the streets within the next day or two.

TINIE HUNNICUT, A NEGRO WOMan, whose home is in Atlanta, will pass the next few years of her life under the guardianship and direct protection of the United States government. The woman was arraigned in the United States court yesterday. Judge Newman presiding, charged with sending an offensive letter through the mails. With a verdict of guilty the woman was remanded to the Fulton county jail to await sentence by Judge Newman.

JAP-A-LAC

A STAIN AND VARNISH COMBINED

INDISPENSABLE AT MOVING TIME

PORCH FURNITURE

PLATE RACKS

REFRIGERATORS

FIRE FRONTS

JAP-A-LAC is manufactured by one of the oldest and best known Varnish Manufacturers in the world. It is made by a special process, from the finest materials possible to obtain. Only pure pigment is used for coloring, and pigment is the only substance used in either paint or varnish, which will not fade.

JAP-A-LAC is especially made for general use about the home, by any one. It does not require an expert to apply it, and the result of its use on shabby, scuffed furniture or floors is magical.

It dries with a beautiful luster and as hard as flint. On hard or soft wood floors, heel prints, mars, and scratches will not show white. Tables, Chairs, Andirons, Chandeliers, Window and Door Screens, Weather-beaten Doors, Ranges, Wicker Furniture, and in fact everything of wood or metal you may have about your house, is better for a can of JAP-A-LAC.

WHEN MOVING OR CLEANING HOUSE, don't fail to JAP-A-LAC everything that is not in spick and span condition. It costs but a trifle for the JAP-A-LAC. By its use you will save many dollars.

For sale by Paint, Hardware and Drug Dealers at prices from 15c to $2.50. Sixteen beautiful colors are three of the colors you can use on a Weather-beaten Door with magical effect. Doors become disreputable looking, quicker than anything else about the home. They are constantly exposed to storms and weather changes. Few people know how easy it is to keep their doors spick and span with JAP-A-LAC. A few minutes' time in washing, and two or three coats of JAP-A-LAC, will put your door in as good condition as new—you will forget what the JAP-A-LAC costs when you see the result. Try it on your front door—your paint dealer will tell you how much you need.

JAP-A-LAC

OAK, MAHOGANY AND NATURAL

A WARNING AGAINST THE DEALER WHO SUBSTITUTES.

One of our good customers wrote to us, that she asked her dealer for JAP-A-LAC, and he said, "I don't keep it, but here is something with a name ending in 'LAC;' it's the same thing."

She asked him if he had ever kept JAP-A-LAC. He said, "NO." Then she asked him how he knew it was the same thing. He DIDN'T know it. He simply lied, but then the substitutor regards lying as a virtue. Trade with the dealer who gives you what you ask for—that's JAP-A-LAC.

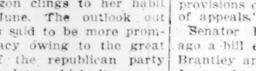

If you contemplate building a home, insist on having GLIDDEN'S GREEN LABEL VARNISHES used. They are the standard of quality.

"HOLY WEEK" IS OBSERVED.

Days Before Easter Sunday To Be Filled With Manifestations of Piety.

The present week is a notable one in the history of the Catholic and Episcopal churches. It is known as "holy week," and is so observed by the membership of these churches.

The Episcopal church, under the leadership of Bishop Nelson, has been holding a series of noon meetings each day during Lent. These meetings have been largely and widely attended.

Wednesday is "Confession" day, and the Catholic church will hold appropriate services.

On Maunday Thursday solemn mass will be observed by Catholics at noon, and preaching services will be held at night.

Good Friday and Holy Saturday will both be days filled with notable services.

The Sacred Heart church has announced the following programme of services for the remainder of this week:

Confessions will be held on Wednesday from 3:30 to 8 o'clock p. m. At 4:30 there will be rosary, sermon and benediction.

On Maundy Thursday, solemn high mass at 8 o'clock in the morning. Stations of the cross and sermon at 8 p. m.

Good Friday, mass of the presanctified at 8 a. m. Stations of the cross at 3 p. m. The Rev. Father Dougherty, C. S. P., of the Seventeenth infantry, United States army, will preach at this service.

Holy Saturday, blessing of the pascal candle and baptismal fount, to be followed by high mass at 7:30 a. m.

Gainesville, Fla., April 10.—(Special.)—The twenty-third annual session of the Knights of Honor of Florida convened here today with a large attendance from all lodges. Among the prominent visitors is Supreme Treasurer Frank B. Sliger, of St. Louis. Reports for the past twenty-five years were very favorable. The state convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union also convened here today, and a fine programme is arranged.

THEATERS.

Viola Allen in "The Toast of the Town."

Viola Allen will appear as Betty Singleton, in Clyde Fitch's play, "The Toast of the Town" at the Grand tonight. This will be the second time that Miss Allen has, since becoming a star, impersonated an actress in a play. The first was Glory Quayle in "The Christian," with big sucess.

The story of "The Toast of the Town," relates incdents in the career of Betty Singleton, who is supposed to be a famous actress who required during the time of George III. Betty in the height of her career and "the toast of the town," marries the Duke of Malmsbury and teaves the stage. As might be expected from such an allience, Betty has her troubles, but after much stress and storm, the two young people finally settle their differences and live happily ever after. The play is in four acts and said to be mounted with exquisite taste. Mr. Fitch is said to have introduced several striking novelties, which seem to be ever-present in dramas from his pen. One of these occurs in the first act, which is supposed to occur in the green room of old Drury Lane theater. Betty is making her farewell to the stage as Beatrice in "Much Ada About Nothing." That morning she was married to the duke of Malmsbury. The play is over and there is a loud demand for a farewell speech on the part of the audience, which is heard but not seen. Betty rushes from the green room when the stage is at once as dark as a pocket, and the next that is seen of her she is standing in front of a green baize curtain at the front of the stage, when Miss Allen, still in her character, appears and addresses the real audience, which is supposed to be the one seated in the old London playhouse. Betty disappears; all again is darkness, until she returns into the green room, as before. Miss Allen is surrounded by a very notable company of players, including Isabel Irving, Mrs. Fanny Addison Pitt, Harrison Hunter, Hassard Short, Norman Tharp, C. Leslie Allen and Alice Wilson.

Daniel Ryan's Success.

Daniel Ryan has eclipsed every success to his credit in Atlanta, because of the excellent entertainment he and his associates are offering at the Bijou this week.

With just one bill he has accomplished more in the way of establishing his popularity than anything that he has offered, for the excellence of the Irving success, "The Bells," is the dramatic gem of the season. The company has demonstrated its worth, but without a doubt every member has become better established.

"The Bells" was the bill at the two performances yesterday, and large audiences thoroughly enjoyed the entertainment.

Tonight and matinee tomorrow Mr. Ryan will present his version of "The Iron Master," the famous Kendall success, under his own title, "The Fatal Wedding." In this bill the player and his supporters will be seen at their best. While the play is intensely dramatic, it is not at all heavy. Thursday night and Saturday night "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" will be the bill and at Saturday matinee "Camille" will be the offering. There will be no performance on Good Friday.

Star Theater.

The "Wild West," with its numerous vaudeville specialties, is an excellent production, and is playing to large and appreciative audiences at every performance. The vaudeville specialties are unusually good. Deserving special mention are the numbers by Lindsey and Bell, Miss Georgia Thomas, Ed Jordan, Miss Florence Moore, Martyre Sisters, Fred Russell, Miss Grace Frances, Miss Daisy Lowman in her illustrated pictures, having as one of her subjects, "When the Fields Are White With Daisies," and the moving pictures. Matinee today.

CHURCH CHIMES

The heavy rain Monday morning prevented a large attendance at any of the ministers' meetings. Only informal meetings were held, at which no matters of public interest came up for discussion.

Revival services were begun Sunday at the Capitol Avenue Baptist church. A service will be held each night this week.

Rev. Dr. Huckabee is preaching this week at the People's tabernacle and the same crowds in attendance upon his meetings at Payne Memorial are marking the meetings at the People's tabernacle.

A letter just received from Dr. Torrey indicates that Mr. Alexander will be unable to reach the city before the 6th of May.

The results of the recent Presbyterian school of methods is already in evidence, as a number of schools are preparing to change entirely their plan of running the school. More definite and consequently more effective work is being planned.

It is stated that quite a novel plan is being suggested whereby the capacity of the Peachtree Auditorium will be enlarged for the Torrey-Alexander meetings. A proposition is on foot to put in front of the speaker's desk a sounding board and telephone receiver so that any phone can be connected and hear through their telephone all the service. This was tried and successfully worked in Philadelphia.

At a recent service in the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church in New York a check for $2,000, two $100 bills and six $20 gold pieces formed part of the morning collection. There was no special notice paid to it in the metropolis, and yet it strikingly points to liberal giving as well as great wealth.

After the completion of the new First Baptist church the Evangelical Ministers' Association will meet in the Wesley Memorial church. For years the association has held its monthly meetings in the old First Baptist and it will hardly seem natural for the meetings to be held anywhere else. It is probable that a kind of farewell memorial service may be held at the last meeting in the old building.

HARPERS BOOKS

THE SPOILERS

By Rex E. Beach

This is a story written by a strong man, of a strong man for strong and grown-up men to read. It is a tale such as is told by a man perhaps once in a lifetime—a tale of impetuous emotion, of brute strength and courage, of swift and passionate love and hate—a tale which tells itself without fine words — vigorous, forceful, mighty. There is no room for the violet conventions of society in that robust land where "Never a law of God or Man runs north of Fifty-three."

The only law is the law of possession, of individual conscience, and of hunger—the hunger for gold digged out of the hills, and the blinding hunger of man for woman and for woman's love. It is a story of today, but it goes back to the root of things, and is true of all men and all real women since time began.

COTTON MARKET WAS MORE ACTIVE

Reached New High Prices for the Bull Movement.

On Aggressive Support and Covering—Close Was Steady Within a Point or Two of the Top Net 6 to 14 Points Higher.

New York, April 10.—The cotton market was more active today and reached new high prices for the bull movement on aggressive support and covering. The close was steady at a net advance of 6 to 14 points. Sales for the day were reported of 250,000 bales. The market opened firm at an advance of 5@9 points in response to higher cables and bullish private advices from Liverpool. Prices worked a little higher immediately after the call on clique buying, demand for May from spot interests and covering, but the offering became much heavier around 11.30 for May and 11.22 for July, or even with the high point of last month, and the market eased off a few points coward midday when trading also became less active and it was evidently the disposition among local traders to await the showing of the first weekly review of the weating bureau for the season. This was published at noon and proved rather more bearish than otherwise, but had no appreciable effect on the market, which rallied sharply in the late trading and sold at the highest figures of the movement just before the close. Final prices were within a point or two of the top. Private cables from Liverpool reported Europe buying all the cotton offered, and English spot sales were 10.000 bales at an advance of 3 points. Weather advices were considered favorable on the average, and were reflected in the comparative easiness of the new crop. Southern spot markets were unchanged to 1-8c higher.

New Orleans Cotton Market.

New York, April 10.—Spot cotton in active demand at full prices. Sales 5,700 bales, including 2100 to arrive and 100 f. b. Quotations advanced 1-8c; middling 11 3-8c.

Futures, influenced by the unexpected improvement in Liverpool, opened firm with prices 6 to 7 points above last evening's finals. The strength and activity of local spots also exerted a bullish influence on contracts. The market closed firm within a point of the top. Net gains were 8 to 11 points.

The Dry Goods Market.

New York, April 10.—The dry goods market today was quiet owing to the observance of the holiday. Print cloths were more active, printed goods being sold in small quantities for export. Linens moved with considerable freedom. Bleached and brown cottons were firm, but in quiet call.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.

New York, April 10.—COTTON—Our market opened at an advance of some 7 points in response to better advices from Liverpool, where our cable reported a more bullish feeling on the excellent trade conditions in Manchester and a brisk demand from continental operators. On the advance May and July appeared in good demand by spot houses, and Liverpool was also an early buyer, apparently against previous sales. As has been the case before, the cotton was supplied by general realizing at the higher prices on the part of those who had carried their long cotton through the recent decline. This realizing, together with rather heavy estimated receipts for tomorrow, in New Orleans, checked the advancing tendency, but the undertone was noticeably stronger throughout the day. The weather report, issued at noon, proved better than expectations, and reported fair weather, save in scattered portions and Texas, and seasonable temperatures over the belt as a whole. New Orleans reported a good demand for spots with prices 1-8c higher.

Gibert & Clay.

New Orleans, April 10.—COTTON—The excellent Liverpool market was generally attributed to the strength of the trade in Manchester and on the continent, added to the more pronounced bullish feeling now existing. Shorts were reported as covering and the purchase of the winter months was attracting spinners. In the net result options gained 5 points on the close while in spots transactions of 10,000 bales were consummated at 5 points advance. The advance in prices on the opening of the local market was in complete harmony with the mere favorable foreign news, and the bidding for large blocks of July delivery by one of the local bull leaders imparted considerable strength to the market. Owing to the narrowness of trading prices later in the day eased somewhat in anticipation of prospects for excellent weather over the belt. The map this morning is very good, the precipitation light and scattered and being more chiefly confined to some of the eastern states. The first of the government's weekly weather reports was issued today, but, owing to the piecemeal manner in which it was received and its meaningless text, exerted little or no influence upon the market. As a whole, the weather has been favorable, for while frosts and rains have occurred in different places, they have been mostly local in character and of no important duration.

New York, April 10.—STOCKS—The market endured the early influences with a fair tone, though under pressure, influenced by favorable foreign conditions, and some support from London, but the first news of an increase in the loss of the banks through subtreasury operations was followed by high call money rates, and this restricted support, notwithstanding that the clearing house gained nearly $700,000 over night from subtreasury. During the early afternoon, in the absence of favorable news, the general list broke sharply, led by Union Pacific and followed impartially by nearly all issues except the coalers, which lost less relatively than other issues. The tone of the market at this time was very irregular and nervous, and seemed to follow directly the sharp upturn in money from 17 to 23 and finally 25 per cent. During the last hour less pressure was felt and a somewhat better tone prevailed. The market is really showing a remarkable resisting power under the circumstances. The reported decision of the anthracite coal operators to arbitrate the question of wages and complaints should assure a satisfactory termination of the controversy.

Ware & Leland.

New York, April 10.—COTTON—Liverpool was the center of bullish activity today and the New York cotton market advanced in sympathy with prices abroad. There was no change in the character of the market, and enormous quantities of July cotton seemed to be for sale on the rise over 11.20. It is now some weeks since July first ran over 11c and in the meantime the range has been one within 30 points. During the interval there has been extensive buying of May and selling of July, and this has succeeded in bringing about a congested condition in May option. As long as the buying continues there is not likely to be any change in the present character of the market. The new crops were in demand owing to the advance in May and July and this led to a generally firm market throughout the day. The situation is of the kind difficult to forecast as the weather will play an important part later on. For the present the market moves under the impulse of the accumulation in May, and on all declines it is evident that purchases will show a profit. The tendency is likely to be toward a higher level, at least until after the disposition of the New York stock on May contracts has been decided upon.

New York, April 10.—STOCKS—Great irregularity occurred in the stock market. Following a higher opening there was a rally, which met stock and then followed some pool liquidation. The issues mentioned this morning display a stronger reactionary tendency this afternoon, and they should now be purchased when weak. The market seems to us to have been raided down this afternoon as a final effort prior to a sharp recovery, the fullness of which, should it occur, will not in all probability hold until the money situation clears in the meantime. The liquidation in the stock market this afternoon and the high money rate should operate to reduce lines heavily, especially when it is considered that heavy transfer of long stocks has taken place to London because of easier money there. Thus it is hoped that the situation will be remedied by the sacrificing of the stock market, which speculation has not been to blame for high rates, as many think. We believe the fundamentals will hold the market well in hand and prevent any demoralization, but as there is not enough money to met all demands conservative action is necessary, as stated this morning. An equalization of money will quickly turn investors into the security market, but not until then and we would, in buying on weak spots, operate for turns only, as in selling on rallies.

L. J. Anderson & Co.

New York, April 10.—In the cotton future market today there was a firm tone. Certain commission houses advised their clients to buy on all soft spots, and to this advice there was good response. A prominent operator came out with a bullish circular and this influenced the shorts to reduce their lines. The European advices were quite firm, and spot market information was still of a bullish turn. There was some talk in the pit today that Browne and Hayne have combined to run a bull deal in the July delivery. There appears to be some basis for this talk since both of these leaders have recently bought big lines of the July delivery. There is still believed to be a big short interest in May and July cotton, and the shorts have a good paper loss, which some of the pit observers say will be taken on any further advance. Incidentally it is stated that some of the bull leaders are working to uncover stop orders which are believed to have been entered slightly above current quotations. The southern telegrams today referred to increased acreage in a less confident manner, and this was regarded as significant and favorable to holders of cotton.

The Metal Market.

New York, April 10.—Tin was higher in London at £176 for spot and futures at £171 7s 6d. Locally steady, with spot a shade higher at 38.60@38.70.

REPORT ON WHEAT CHECKED DECLINE

Bears Active, Bidders Causing a Sharp Upturn.

Close Was Strong 3-4c Higher for Today—Corn and Oats Showed a Little Change at the Close. Provisions 5 to 7 1-2c Higher.

Chicago, April 10.—A sharp advance in wheat here today followed the publication of the government crop report, which showed a loss of 5 points in the condition of fall sown wheat. The market closed strong with the May delivery 3-4c higher. Corn and oats were changed very slightly and provisions were 5@7 1-2c higher.

Prior to the issuance of the crop report trading in the wheat pit was quiet, and because of a general belief that it would declare winter wheat to be in excellent condition, the tone of the market was easy. The weakness was emphasized by lower cables and continued favorable weather in the new crop districts. When the figures declaring the condition of the crop to be 89.1 were posted there was a sudden reversal of sentiment. The bears who had sold short in expectation of an extremely bearish report became active bidders and this caused a sharp upturn. Today's report showed a falling off of 5 per cent in wheat compared with official figures given out last December—94.1. The market held strong for the remainder of the day on an active demand. The close was strong with prices almost at the highest point of the day. May opened 1-8@1-4c lower at 77 7-8@78c, sold off to 77 5-8@7 3-4c, and then rallied to 78 7-8@79c. The close was at 78 7-8c. July sold between 77 3-8@77 5-8 and closed at a gain of 5-8@3-4c at 77 3-8@7 1-2c. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 44,000 bushels. The world's visible supply, as shown by Bradstreet's decreased 480,000. Primary receipts, 306,000, against 107,000 one year ago. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 234 cars, against 351 cars last week and 157 one years ago.

The upturn in wheat had a strong effect on the corn market, prices showing moderate firmness during the first half of the session. Trading, however, was not in large volume. During the early part of the day, sentiment was inclined to favor lower prices because of lower cables and improved weather conditions throughout the corn belt. A feature of early trading was heavy sales of July by a leading elevator concern. The principal buying was by commission houses. The market closed steady and near the highest prices of the day. May opened a shade to 1-4c lower at 45 3-4@45 7-8c to 46c, sold up to 46 1-4 and closed at 46 1-8. Receipts 265 cars, 12 of contract grade.

Oats steady all day. The clear weather weakened prices somewhat at the opening, but this was later offset by the strength of wheat. May opened a shade to 1-8c lower at 31 1-2@31 5-8c, sold up to 31 3-4c and closed at 31 5-8@31 3-4c. Receipts 180 cars.

Provisions were in active demand and the market was firm all day. There was an especially lively request for lard, which was said to be due to light stocks both in this country and abroad. At the close May pork was up 5c at $16.32 1-2; Lard was 7 1-2c up at $8.65. Ribs were 5@7 1-2c higher at $8.80.

R. Siedenburg & Co.

New York, April 10.—COTTON—Liverpool, due 1 to 2 lower, opened steady at 1 point decline, but at 12.15 p. m. showed a net advance of 4 to 5 points. The sudden strength in that market was the cause of considerable comment here, and was attributed to various causes. It is generally believed now that the advance was due to buying by the short interest in this market as a hedge against possibilities during the holiday period. Later, private advices from Liverpool reported large and persistent selling, supposed to be for the American long interest. That market, on the other hand, was a buyer of May in New York, presumably against sales of May-June in the home market; representinn gthe undoing of straddles, which were made at differences of about 60 points. This morning's differences were about 75 points. Our market opened firm at an advance of 5 to 9 points which was disappointing in the face of the strong Liverpool showing. Trading was very active and prices remained steady, with little change. In fact, the range for the day has been confined to about 9 points and the market now acts very sluggishly. The heavy receipts of today and the fair weather throughout the belt, with predictions for fair weather tomorrow, are checking any advancing tendencies which may have been developed by the early strength of the foreign market. Temperatures continue satisfactory and considerable interest centers in weather conditions. It is thought that the unsettled conditions in Wall street, due to the high money rate, has had something to do with the restriction of cotton business today. Spot markets are firm, however, and are reported unchanged to 1-8 up. On the strength of this the late afternoon market advanced 2 to 4 points, closing steady. Liverpool is due 1 up tomorrow moning.

BEARS RAIDED THE STOCK MARKET

Stop Loss Orders Came Into Effect on the Decline.

There Was Indiscriminate Selling and Throwing Over of Large Holdings for What They Would Bring—More Weakness Shown Than for Weeks.

New York April 10.—Stocks became decidedly weak today, under what appeared to be a raid by an organized bear party in the speculation. The continued stringency of money has been viewed with considerable equanimity by speculative holders of stocks so long as prices held steady or showed occasional signs of advances, keeping up speculative confluence that there would be an ultimate rising affording a profit on holdings sufficient to cover interest charges even at the nigh prevailing rates. But with prices started decisively downward sentiment underwent a marked alteration. It was evident that the fear of such a movement had prompted the placing of large stop loss orders below the market. Once the raiding tactics of the bear party had succeeded in forcing prices down to the figures at which these stop loss orders came into effect, there was quite indiscriminate selling and throwing over of large holdings for what they would bring. The market showed more acute weakness than at any time for several weeks. A decided effect seemed to be produced on sentiment also by the government estimate of the condition on April 1, of the winter wheat crop. The condition was poorer than had been hoped for, and the decided strength resulting in the wheat market dashed the sanguine confidence that has been felt in the promising outlook for the crop. There was little change in the money situation, the renewal rate being generally held at 20 per cent. While the rate yielded early to below that figure, it recovered later to above it and touched 25 per cent again. At one time during the morning the stock market was quite generally strong. Reading advanced on talk of a compromise of the coal mining dispute. Amalgamated Copper responded to gossip of a prosective dividend increase. But these stocks afterwards were amongst the weakest of the list with corresponding effect on the reversal of sentiment. The professional character of a part of the selling was indicated by the demand to cover shorts which caused some recovery, so that last prices were not at the lowest of the day, although the closing tone was unsettled and irregular again.

Bonds were easy. Total sales, par value, $2,260,000.

By order of the board of directors.

R. D. LANKFORD, Secretary.

APPLICATION FOR CHARTER

STATE OF GEORGIA, FULTON COUNTY.—To Hon. Phillip Cook, Secretary of State, of Georgia:

The petition of S. F. Pirkle, of Gwinnett county; M. D. Irwin, of Jackson county; D. L. McDaniel, of Fulton county; J. W. McDaniel, of Texas, and R. H. Pirkle, of Gwinnett county, respectfully shows:

1. That they desire for themselves, their associates and successors, to be incorporated under the laws of Georgia under the name of THE CITIZENS' MUTUAL BENEFIT SOCIETY.

2. The kind of insurance business they propose to carry on shall be that which is incident to a fraternal beneficiary order, national and international. The order shall have initiative and degree ritualism, fraternal and sacred obligations, signs and ceremonies, under which there shall be united people of sound health, good morals and high character, and these obligations may extend to social as well as beneficiary members.

3. There shall be a supreme council, in which shall be vested the power to regulate the condition of membership, to provide plans for the organization of subordinate bodies, to adopt constitution and by-laws, and to promote, control and supervise the general operation of the organization.

4. The supreme council shall be composed of the officers of that body and such other members of the society as the constitution and by-laws may provide.

5. There shall be no capital stock, but the resources of the corporation shall be of three classes—(1) The mortuary fund, collected by assessment, out of which the death claims under the beneficiary certificates will be paid; (2) the reserve fund, out of which the sick benefit, old age and accident claims will be paid; (3) the promotion or expense fund, out of which will be paid all expenses in the organization and conduct of the society. All mortuary assessments shall be applied as follows: Eighty per cent to discharge beneficiary certificates, 10 per cent to reserve fund for sick, accident and old-age benefits, 10 per cent to promotion fund. All extra assessments shall go into the reserve fund for payment of claims arising under that department.

6. The business of the order shall be under the control and direction of the supreme council. The president of the supreme council shall have authority to contract with members of that body or with members of subordinate bodies for conducting the work of promoting and carrying on the business of the society, provided no such contract can affect the beneficiary fund set apart to discharge beneficiary certificates.

7. The incorporators shall be authorized to perform all the duties of the supreme council until the election of officers of that body, who shall have full control.

8. Your petitioners further show that they intend in good faith to go forward without delay to organize said society, and they pray to be incorporated under the laws of this state, with all the powers thereby given to fraternal beneficiary orders.
